NEW CASTLE CONTRACTORS GET SCHOOL AWARDS

WILL REQUIRES NEW DICTIONARY FOR DEBENTURES

Special To The News.
BOSTON, April 23.—Say, it's "using no money to keep you all informed."
I had read so much about it this morning that I had nobody here in Boston couldn't tell me what it meant. I had to go buy a dictionary.
I knew before I looked it up that it was some commonplace word that wouldn't do the farmer any good.
Denature
—A certificate serving as a voucher for a debt. That ain't nothing but just a plain old note, giving and taking, and going on friends' "debentures" is what makes the farmer need relief.
Besides, it's the middle man that don't raise the wheat but just ships it. He is the one that gets the "denature." That ain't farm relief. That bill ought to be called Exporters' Relief Bill.
Yours,
WILL.

PA NEW OBSERVES

More progress is being made each day in the personal contact member-ship drive of the New Castle Motor Club. This year should find at least a thousand local people as members of the club.

If this weather keep on, Pa. News, with all good intent, will start asking for signs of spring.

The present weather is even holding back the warble playing. Pa.
News notices very little of this old and dignified mode of play.

Without mention to the heavy frost, were you out last night driving or walking? It must have been one of the coldest nights that ever occurred in April. Didn't see a thermometer, but the feeling was there.

Tourists are starting early this year coming through New Castle is shown by the fact that five cars parked in a down town parking grounds this morning each carried a license from a different state.

The licenses were from the following five states: New York, New Jersey, Georgia, Maryland, and Michigan. The unusual thing about these cars was that they were parked close together which is very unusual.

Pa. News noted two scissors grinders walking along one of the streets of the city. It has been a long time since these wandering mechanics have been seen around the city.

There has been a considerable increase in employment in this district this spring. The numbers of men seen on the streets during the day time has dwindled to a very small number in comparison with the same time in several years past.

Rivers and streams in his district which were badly swollen on Sunday are fast receding to about their normal stage today.

There's to be "music in the air"
this evening when the newly formed

VESSEL GROUNDS, SINKS QUICKLY

International News Service.
LONDON, April 23.—One hundred and twelve persons are believed to have been drowned when the Japanese Steamship Tokokuni Maru went aground off Cape Erimo and sank last night. The majority of the ship's passengers were fishermen.

Other ships went to the rescue and picked up 97 survivors from the warrior.

The Tokokuni Maru sank so quickly the wireless operator had time to send out only one SOS.
Cape Erimo lies on the southeastern coast of the northern island of Koku-shu and is approximately 65 miles from the Japanese naval base at Mitsushima.

Representative Frank Murphy Of Stuebenville, Ohio, Informed Wife Killed

International News Service.
WASHINGTON, April 23.—Rep.
Frank Murphy (R) of Ohio, was speeding to Florida today, in response to a telegram notifying him that his wife, a semi-invalid, had been killed in an automobile accident near Ocala, Fla.

The body will be taken back to Stuebenville, their home, for burial.
Mrs. Murphy was in a car being driven by E. W. Hockenbury of St.
Petersburg, according to messages received here. Others in the party were Mrs. Mary Marcus, Mrs. Mrs.
Cora Young of Syracuse, N. Y., and J. M. Love of Portcharter, N. Y., near Ocala. The car skidded and overturned, crushing Mrs. Murphy. The others escaped with minor injuries.

Sincerity Of European Na-

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Having placed America's disarmament cards on the table at Geneva, face up, Washington sat back today and waited for the world's great naval powers to match them.
Stripped of six-cylinder words and nietzschean diplomatic expression, the American offer amounts to this:
"Reduce your armament, and we will match you—ship for ship, gun for gun. The sky's the limit."

All Classes Affected
But one condition is thrown about the American offer. That is that the reduction to be accomplished must affect all classes of ships, from dreadnaughts to submarines, from battle cruisers to destroyers.

Only once before in the world's history has such a bold challenge been flung out to the world powers. That was nearly nine years ago in Washington when Charles E. Hughes, as Secretary of State, almost gave the statement of the world's apoplexy by dramatically proposing to them.

Investigate Crash Of Auto
And Train That Kills
Father And Son
Near Altoona

FOURTEEN CHILDREN ARE MADE FATHERLESS

ALTOONA, Pa., April 23.—Railroad and county officials today started an investigation into the grade crossing accident at Duncansville near here, yesterday in which Lloyd A. Shaw, 68, and James H. Shaw, 40 father and son of McKee, were fatally injured.
Both men died a few hours after their automobile was struck by a Pennsylvania test train. The elder Shaw was the father of nine children, and his son the father of five.
The train which struck the Shaw car was hauled by a Cascade engine.
It was said which was being operated by officials of the Pennsylvania railroad and mechanical experts.

Three Hundred Bantam Hens To Aid Pheasant Hatching At Game Farm

State Game Propagation Farm Is Developing—Several Hundred Eggs Already Collected—Employees Have Shotguns Handy To Ward Off Possible Attack
By Hawks

In all the woodlands of Pennsylvania there is probably no more beautiful wild bird than the ring necked pheasant. A sort of vest pocket edition of the peacock, the male pheasant is the beau brumm of the wildlife in Pennsylvania, but where can one see more than one or two at a time?
Lawrence county has the answer
in the "Charles G. Jordan Game Farm", one and a quarter miles east of Harlansburg, where at the present time 1,200 ring necks are enclosed in a 10-acre field, with seven men of the game department busy taking care of them.
Like an Athletic Field
At first glance the pheasant pens resemble a huge athletic field. In size the total enclosure is 300x432 feet, with three partitions inside. In each of the three pens there are 300 hens and 100 cocks, and every one of them beautiful specimens of this native Pennsylvania game bird.
Nature seems to have reversed her order in the matter of beautification insofar as the pheasant is concerned.
The male bird is a gorgeous fellow, with golden bronze wings and body, blue neck, with a white ring and cherry red wattles. As he struts around the pen the male bird seems to realize his sartorial superiority over the hens, who with their mottled brown bodies seem to blend in with underbrush and foliage. The answer is that the hen's coloring is a protective one designed by nature to pro-

International News Service.
CHICAGO, April 23.—A post office inspector was shot in the abdomen and a gunman was wounded in a savage gun battle between three federal agents and four desperadoes in a North Side hotel room today.
E. J. Jackson, the inspector wounded, is in a critical condition.
Firing with shotguns and pistols began when four suspects, lured to the Hawthorne Arms hotel, entered a room and found the two government operatives and an informer awaiting them.

One of the quartet injured.
One of the quartet injured Mackin-

The other three outlaws and a woman who was with them jumped one story from a window. The men escaped, but the woman, who gave the name of Mrs. Marie Courtney, wife of one of the suspects, sprained an ankle and was arrested.

Courtney, supposed leader of the band, is said by police to have a record for robbery and the attempted bribery in March, 1923, of jurors who were trying Gov. Len Small in a case involving misuse of state funds.

afternoon.
They investigated the island and its surroundings thoroughly and found an old sweater, an old overcoat and a pair of football pants which were in-

The home, which is the gift of Mrs.
David Jameson and her daughter, Mrs. Will D. McCreery, is beautifully finished throughout and will be a cheerful homelike residence for the nurses at the institution.

Provide For 45 Nurses Accommodations have been provided for close to 45 nurses, six double rooms and four single rooms being located on the second and third floors of the home, in addition to two bath rooms on each floor.

On the first floor of the building is located a spacious reception hall, finished in cream with highly polished oak floors. Just in the rear, is a small auditorium which is connected with the reception hall by folding doors. The auditorium will be used for a study hall, entertainments, and the like. The graduation exercises of the nurses will be held here. The floor of the auditorium has been finished in hard maple. When necessary the doors can be folded back, providing one immense room.

To the one side of reception hall will be located the suite of the directress

Start Setting Out Trees On Harlansburg Road

Under the supervision of H. P.
Lightner of the State Highway department, work is being started today upon the beautification of the Harlansburg road, from McCaslin to the Butler county line. Two hundred eighty seven American Elm are being set out at intervals of 50 feet, on the north side of the highway.

The history of the trees is an interesting example of perseverance in the face of what appeared to be insuperable odds. A gentleman of the city whose name is withheld at his request, about a year ago made a request to the state for trees for the Harlansburg road.
The request seemed to be turned down, but the aid of the Secretary of Agriculture, Dr. Charles G. Jordan as solicited and with Dr. Jordan working the Harlansburg end and the other gentleman working this end, the matter was finally accomplished.
With the trees is a lot of shrubbery which will be set out along the highway and in a few years the road between McCaslin and the Butler comity line will be lined with beautiful elms.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—President Hoover today received fresh support in his fight against the export debenture plan of farm relief when House leaders declared they would kill any debenture plan which may pass the Senate.
Having been relieved of the embarrassment of the long fight for the McNary-Haugen equalization fee bill, the House backers of the $500, 000,000 federal farm board bill displayed considerable resentment over the action of the Senate agriculture committee in voting to include the debenture plan in the McNary bill.
The situation threatened to revive enmity between the two houses in Congress which became so pronounced during the last regular session that congressional leaders were forced to make appeals to members to temporize their remarks.

Debenture Plan To Fail
Meantime the administration leaders in the Senate were attempting to rally votes against the debenture plan which was included as an on-tional measure in the McNary bill.

There was no indication, however, that friends of the export debenture plan—under which exporters of agricultural crops would receive a bonus of one-half the tariff upon exports—would drop it.

Robert Lee Palen Sustains Fractured Skull In Short Fall
From Ladder

Robert Lee Palen, aged 60, employed at the Johnson Bronze plant on South Mill street, died in the New Castle hospital Monday evening as the result of injuries sustained when he fell from a ladder about 12 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Mr. Palen, with other workmen, was engaged in erecting a track for a conveyor. The men had put up a section and had worked away to get another. They were about fifteen or twenty feet from the track when they heard a crash and, on looking around, saw Palen lying on the floor. He appeared to be badly injured and was rushed to the New Castle hospital, where he died about three hours later.
His skull having been fractured.

Mr. Palen fell only about six feet,
according to reports given to Coroner J. P. Caldwell. As nobody appears to have seen him until after the crash it is uncertain just what happened.
Mr. Palen is survived by his wife and three children, two sons, Frank Palen of Seattle, Wash., Roy Palen of Snyder, Okla., and one daughter, Mrs.
Vera Welch of Youngstown.

Mr. Palen, who was born in Detroit, Mich., has been a resident of New Castle for a number of years. He was a millwright by occupation. He belonged to Alma lodge, No. 420, Knights of Pythias, of Ellwood City, Pa. His mother, Mrs. Eliza Palen, is still living and is a resident of Tulsa, Okla.

He is also survived by three brothers, Walter Palen of Tusculum, Pa., Delbert Palen and Frank Palen of Tulsa, Okla., and one sister, Mrs. Leslie, of Dunkirk, N. Y.

Funeral Thursday at two p.m. in

Levee Gives Way In Arkansas—Floods In Eastern Pennsylvania

Hard on the heels of the abnormal rainy weather of the past two weeks came reports today of floods, swollen rivers, public distress and property damage in many sections of the country.

International News Service
dispatches indicated that the Eastern, Southern and Midwestern sections of the nation had been hardest hit.

Levee Crumbles
From Snow Lake, Arkansas came a graphic account of how nearly 1,000 persons had been washed out of their homes by the crumbling of a part of the Laconia levee caused by the steadily increasing pressure of the rising backwaters of the Mississippi river.

An area of nearly 12,000 acres is inundated in this district, according to International News Service, and many thousands are seeking refuge in high grounds built purposely for such emergencies.

In upstate New York on the outskirts of Rochester the Genesee river overflowed its banks with the consequent marooning of more than fifty families and property damage running into thousands. The river waters were still rising today, although the rain had ceased falling, and numerous highways and railroad cuts were inundated, greatly hampering traffic.

Flood In State Conditions in the Susquehanna river valley, both in New York and Pennsylvania, likewise were reported bad.

Two lives were said to have been lost, farms inundated and hundreds made homeless along the winding course of the Susquehanna.

From New England came reports that numerous roads were under water and that rivers, reservoirs and dams were rising steadily.

Sunshine and warm weather, however, are expected to hold damage to a minimum in this section.

Flood waters of the Susquehanna river in Pennsylvania were reported to be still rising today, although where for a time serious damage was threatened as the result of the recent heavy rainfall.

Waters Receding
From Wilkes-Barre where the damage concentrated yesterday came reports today that the river had fallen approximately one foot since Monday, while Binghamton, N. Y., says,

Susquehanna River At Wilkes-Barre Over Banks And Flood Conditions Results

DIKES GIVE WAY UNDER PRESSURE

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., April 23.—Although nature apparently intended to check the rise of the Susquehanna river after reaching a crest of 26.5 feet here, the high water was added to the flood area, indicating that dikes along the stream had given way. Residents were aroused at four o'clock this morning when water began to lash the walls of their homes and pour into the cellars. The entire section was flooded within an hour by the unexpected advance in this particular area. On the river common the water reached 16 feet, indicating a serious drop during the early morning hours. Traffic halted. Vehicular traffic was impossible on scores of streets in this section by the rising waters. Trolley service, however, continued, although a rise of a few inches would have meant discontinuance. Police used boats this morning to work from the streets in order that they may go to their employment. Many families were removed to the homes of friends and relatives during the night as the danger increased. Reports from points along the upper Susquehanna indicated that the danger had passed, the river dropping steadily in many of the tributaries. Weather conditions were ideal.

The weather was cool and cloudy. The ship rose easily and disappeared in a westerly direction.

Hodge Property Is Being Dismantled

Employees of the city are dismantling the Hodge property, Neshannock avenue. They are now working under the direction of Councilman Tyler. Yesterday an offer of $225 was made for the house and fixtures. An examination of the material to be reclaimed shows that the council was accurate in refusing the offer. The plumbing, bathroom fixtures are worth that much and the furnace will be sent to the sixth ward fire department.

Penn-Ohio Girls Glee Club will broadcast for the first time from station WGBN of Youngstown. There will be choruses and solo numbers by some talented artists. A chorus of 25 voices has been formed under the leadership of T. Herbert Davis, director, and considerably above the average in talent.

Feels like summer slipped over spring today. Trout fishermen must be having a wonderful time of it, trying to snare the elusive speckled beauties. What Pa New means is that he has a well defined case of spring fever.

Adaptation over securing an air mail stop for New Castle seems to have died down during the past few weeks. However, there is no question but what air mail will come eventually, just like the parcel post did.

Another pretty heavy frost was visible this morning. If this keeps up, the fruit crop will either be killed off or a new handy variety will develop.

Pedestrians on their way to work shortly before eight o'clock this morning, observed a pair of strange birds at the corner of North Mercer and Lincoln avenue. They appeared to be doves of some kind, and were considerably smaller than a pigeon. They swooped down out of the air and stopped to get a drink from a little pool of water.

"The suckers are running." Local fishermen who have been fishing for suckers during the past few days report plentiful catches. This morning several fishermen lined the walls of the old Resaca dam and they were having good luck, several big fellows over a foot long having just been caught while Pa New was at the scene.

A Mexican rebel is an ignorant man who gets shot because he was afraid to say "no" when his captain told him to join the rebels.

room and rooms for visiting nurses. A small dressing room is provided in the rear of the stage.

In the basement is located a huge room which can be used for storing the trunks of the nurses and for other like purposes. There is also a small laundry where they may wash their own personal belongings, and a little kitchen where they can have fudge parties and the like.

The building will be heated by the boilers from the main hospital, the pipes running underneath the room. Pumps are located in a cellar to pump the condensed steam back to the boiler.

The walls of the various rooms in the dormitories will be papered, making them more cheerful and home like. Each room is furnished with a bed, dresser, and several chairs. The dresser contains one drawer, which when pulled out, forms a small writing desk.

FLOOD MENACE PREVALENT IN MANY SECTIONS

Towanda and other points on the north branch reported that the waters were receding.

On the west branch high waters continued to menace highways in the vicinity of Williamsport, but there was no serious danger of heavy damage.

In the vicinity of Danville and Bloomsburg it was reported that stretches of lowlands were flooded and highways inundated but that the crest of the flood had been passed and the river was slightly lower than at midnight. It is expected that the waters will recede without causing serious damage in this district.

Harrisburg and other points along the lower course of the river will probably not feel the effects of the high waters.

Thousand Homeless.

SNOW LAKE, Ark., April 23.—Near 1,000 persons had been washed out of house and home today as the result yesterday of the crumbling of a part of the Laconia Circle levee.

The wild clanging of farm bells and the incessant ring of rural telephones spread the alarm of the advance wall of water so quickly that there was no loss of life and nearly all the live stock was saved.

The break in the levee was attributed to the presence of the buckwaters, which have been barked against it for weeks.

An area of nearly thirteen thousand acres was inundated.

The natives were rushed to safety by automobile caravans and on Missouri Pacific trains.

The levee crumbled at a point only a mile from Snow Lake, the only lowly in the circle. Some sought refuge on high mounds built years ago for this emergency.

The break was discovered by a levee patrol. The men heard the waters roar a half mile away.

Bells, whistles and guns throughout the area signaled the break and men in autos and on motor cycles carried the alarm to the more remote homes.

Believe Passers Of Phoney $20 Bills Have Left County

As far as has been determined by the investigation of the local police authorities, but two phoney twenty dollar bills were passed in this city, one being that received by Carl Barth of Grant street, in making a sale at his store and the other one that was located at a local bank.

According to the authorities, these were evidently circulated by floaters who have now gone on to other districts, where they are likely passing them as the makers of the bill and their plates, etc. were apprehended in Buffalo, N. Y., several weeks ago.

CAR REPORTED TO BE BLOCKING WALK

Complaint was made last night concerning an automobile blocking the sidewalk at 112 Crawford avenue. Officer Lockard was detailed on the call and could not locate the owner of the car, which was a Paige touring car, Pennsylvania license B39-431. It was ordered removed to a garage, where it is being held for the owner.

HOOPER REBUFFED ON IMMIGRATION

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Administering the second legislative rebuff to President Hoover within two days, the senate immigration committee today killed two resolutions for repeal of the national origins act.

The committee entirely ignored the president's request, carried in his recent message to congress, for postponement of the national origins quota law, which goes into effect July 1. The committee vote against the president was 4 to 2.

This action virtually ended all chance for repeal or postponement of the new quota law.

The lone hope of the groups fighting national origin quotas will lie in an apparently futile attempt to get the senate to reverse the committee.

This could be accomplished by majority vote, but the senate, at its last session, refused to consider the necessary legislation and there appeared small chance of its acting now as the special session.

Opposition Develops.

The committee's action came on a motion to "indefinitely postpone" consideration of a resolution by Senator Walsh (D of Mont.), and another by Senator New (R of N. Dak.), for repeal of the national origins act.

Senator Reed (R) of Penna., led the opposition while Senator Nye led the debate in favor of the resolutions.

On the vote, Reed was joined by Senators Keyes (R) of New Hampshire, Hatfield (R) of West Va., and Harris (D) of Georgia, in opposing consideration of the resolutions while Johnson (R) of Idaho, chairman of the committee, Senator Grosvenor (D) of Maine, was present but did not vote.

The rebuff to President Hoover's recommendation was not unexpected. When the president pleaded for repeal of the new quota law, he had known on Capitol Hill that he had "crossed" Republican congressional leaders. While the message was being written, rumor had it that president told the legislators he would not mention the immigration law. When he did the administration leaders in congress immediately predicted the recommendation would not be heeded.

The committee's action came with 24 hours of a similar rebuff to the president by the senate agricultural committee. The latter reported the farm bill containing a debenture plan right on top of a presidential message, denouncing the plan.

country, fearful that the gigantic co-operative movement attributed to be set up under the so-called "Hoover plan" of farm relief would destroy their business, have swung in line for it.

The American Cerebrary Butter Manufacturers Association, in a letter to every member of Congress, declared that the co-operative marketing bill "threatens the destruction to thousands of business men and would support of the debenture plan."

The House prepared to close general debate on the Haugen bill today and to take it up for amendment tomorrow. Pilots of the bill predicted that it would be passed on Thursday by an overwhelming vote.

With the Senate also preparing to debate the McNary bill, farm relief was expected to hold the floor in both houses this week.

Martin's Manager Escapes With Wife And Children During Fire

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Henderson and their two children escaped safely when the Henderson home in Boston was damaged by fire Saturday morning. It became known here today, Henderson manager, Andy Martin, who lives Steve Smith at Jolly Bowl Wednesday night.

Early Saturday morning firebells clanged and Henderson awakened in time to see an extension ladder leaning to his window.

He alarmed his wife and saved his two children and they all rushed to the smoke-filled stairway and escaped.

The Henderson home was damaged considerably.

STAR LORE

By Arthur D. Carpenter

There are three kinds of lead in the earth distinguished from one another by their atomic weights. Ordinary lead has an atomic weight of 207; lead disintegrated from uranium, 238; that from thorium, 232. The process of radioactive decay produces lead from uranium. It has been carefully studied and it has come to be known that one percent of uranium for instance, is converted into lead in 43 million years. The relative percentage of lead to uranium in the oldest rocks, shows the world to be about 1,200 million years old. But uranium lead in the rocks does not go back to the creation of the world!

Fisher Refuses Hearing Asked In Coal Police Row

Civil Liberties Union Throws All Resources Into Action In Musmanno Fight

SECOND DEMAND FOR HEARING IS FILED

PITTSBURGH, April 22. A request that the American Civil Liberties Union, having failed to secure a hearing for the coal police row in the Pennsylvania coal and iron police row, be taken up by the state senate, was filed today in the state senate by Representative John S. Fisher, of Allegheny.

The petition was signed by the American Civil Liberties Union, which has been active in the fight against the coal police row.

At the same time a second demand for a hearing was sent to the governor by the Civil Liberties Union. This was purely a gesture, however, Rev. Dr. W. R. Palmer of the Western Theological Seminary, who signed the telegram, said.

The possibility that a delegation from the organization might go to Harrisburg tomorrow was held forth.

Senator Jones Not Originator Of New Five-Ten Measure

Representative Stalker Of New York, Co-Author Of Strict Enforcement Bill

WASHINGTON, April 22. Representative Stalker (R) of New York today expressed a willingness to share the limelight of authorship of the Jones bill, which provides a maximum sentence for first prohibition law violations of $10,000 fine and five years in prison.

Already Sen. Wesley L. Jones (R) of Washington, who sponsored the bill in the senate, has disclosed a desire to have it called the Jones-Stalker bill instead of simply the Jones law.

Stalker told International News Service: "I have no pride in the bill, and I recognize it as my child."

The measure which has aroused a nationwide discussion was first introduced in the house by Rep. Stalker on January 18, 1928, while Sen. Jones introduced it in the senate on January 27, 1928, according to the records.

Stalker has given Stalker the credit of originating it.

Spanish War Vets And Wives Celebrate

Mustering Day And Anniversary Of The Organization Of Auxiliary Observed

One of the most interesting joint sessions of the United Spanish American War Veterans and their auxiliary was held today at the Legion Home.

The affair celebrated Mustering Day and also the fifth anniversary of the organization of the auxiliary to the Legion Home.

At six-thirty o'clock, a thirteen dinner was held, being served by the Ladies' Auxiliary with the following committee in charge: Mrs. Harry Lach, chairman; Mrs. Frank Bessie, Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. E. R. Knowles and Mrs. Orville VanHorn.

Following the dinner, Commander Orville VanHorn assumed charge as master of ceremonies. The program opened with the singing of America, and other appropriate songs, under the leadership of Rev. McClung with Miss Lach at the piano.

Then Homer Drake, chaplain of the camp, stood with his right hand raised, together with the other veterans of the Spanish American war, while they repeated the oath and other obligations taken 31 years ago.

Attorney Walter S. Reynolds then gave a very interesting address on Mustering Day and also spoke of the trip he and his wife to Florida.

This was followed by an interesting talk by Rev. McClung of Plaingrove, who as himself a veteran of the Spanish American war.

Mrs. Katherine McGee then read a brief history of the Spanish American war. All present joined in singing "Till We Meet Again" at the close of the meeting.

The balance of the evening was spent with music and games as the diversions, the winners being awarded prizes. Frank Nesle was chairman of the committee arranging the event.

Next War Will Be Fought Minus Use Of Deadly Gases

Action Taken At League Preparatory Disarmament Conference To Abolish Gas

International News Service
GENEVA, April 23.—Poison gas and deadly germs will play no small part in future warfare—if there are any more wars—according to action taken here today by the League of Nations preparatory disarmament commission.

The commission agreed to forbid the use of both of these agencies of death.

The use of germs was absolutely forbidden.

The abolition of poison gas is to be based upon reciprocal agreements among the various nations.

New impetus has been given to the work of the commission by the speech of Hugh Gibson, United States ambassador to Belgium, expressing the desire of Americans for immediate steps towards the reduction of the world's armaments.

The whole atmosphere of the meeting was revitalized. Delegates of the leading powers were still praising the bold stand taken by America and were openly hopeful that it would lead to a new conference at which decisive action would be taken.

School Journalism Will Be Promoted

Conference Of Teachers To Be Held April 27 In Junior High School

In an endeavor to promote school journalism in the high schools of the county, a conference of teachers has been called for Saturday morning, April 27, in the George Washington Junior high school, by Miss Jean Rummel, assistant principal of the school.

The idea originates in the state office of the Pennsylvania State Educational Association and is being carried out in the various counties of the state.

The purpose of the organization, which will be known as the Lawrence County Regional Press Group is four fold. First to enable school publication staffs and advisors to meet for an interchange of ideas. Second, to raise and uphold the standards and quality of school journals. Third, to improve the status of school publications with the administrative forces. Fourth to foster better relations between schools.

The meeting on Saturday will be for the purpose of organization and also to begin plans for the entertainment of the school journal section of the P. S. E. A. convention which meets here in December.

Every town has one man, possessed of riches got without work, of whom people say: "He knows more law than a lawyer."

THE TERROR Thrills And Fills Capitol

Just as in wines, women and wool blankets, there are degrees of quality in talking pictures. The ordinary, the good, and the super, and it remained for the Capitol theatre to get the best there is in this latest development of the screen.

Opening with "The Terror," a Warner Brothers Vitaphone production, the Capitol Theatre demonstrated to New Castle on Monday evening what quality and perfection are in the speaking screen art. The theatre was only about half big enough to hold the crowd, and for this the management is deeply sorry. However, "The Terror" will be in the theatre all week.

The Capitol was built back in the days when audiences were vital to the success of a theatre. When the spoken drama was the only form of entertainment and to be successful must be heard clearly and distinctly. This peculiar quality means the success of talks in the Capitol and the acoustical perfection means that talks in this theatre will lose much of the hollow sound and hissing sibilances one hears in some.

Charles Freeman, manager of the Capitol is delighted with the success of "The Terror." He believes that "The Home Towns," the George M. Cohan picture booked for next week will be as successful as "The Terror" and from all indications, talks are in the Capitol for a long, successful run.

THREE HUNDRED BANTAM HENS TO AID PHEASANT HATCHING

to be put under bantam hens, who are taking the place of the pheasant hens in the matter of raising the pheasant chicks.

To one who knows little about pheasants, the size of the eggs is rather unusual. They are larger than a bantam hen egg and in color range from a grey blue to an ecru or a muddy brown.

Incubators have been found to develop less healthier birds than the old-fashioned way of hatching eggs and for the hatching the farm has about 300 bantams, with scores more bantam peeps coming along.

Combination Nesting Boxes

The nesting boxes have been built along the ideas of the old cliff dwellers, with 30 or 40 nests partitioned off in huge crate-like boxes. As the peeps are hatched out they will be cared for much like chickens, and as they get larger will be turned into the rearing pens to develop. When large enough they will go to all the hunting counties of western Pennsylvania.

Not only does man like to hunt pheasants, but the bird's age-old enemy, the hawk, is constantly trying to swoop down on the exposed peeps. Daily one sees sinister black bodies, nearly the size of an eagle, wheeling and dipping low over the pens, waiting for a chance to drop down and seize one of the pretty birds.

All of the keepers are on the reception committee for hawks, and all of them go out armed with double-barreled shotguns. The hawk that gets close enough for a shot is liable to stay permanently. A prize exhibit in the barn at the present time is a huge turkey buzzard that was shot by a neighboring farmer. The shot merely broke a wing and the buzzard is now a guest at the game farm.

Golden and Silver

Special attractions at the game farm are a pen of silver pheasants and a pen of golden pheasants. If the ring necks are beautiful the silver and golden are gorgeous. Nature seems to have been in a lavish mood when she gave the birds their coloring, and it does seem as though the male birds realize their surpassing beauty.

The Charles G. Jordan farm is under the supervision of H. J. Sines, who has had the pheasant raising idea in his mind for years. Many years ago he raised pheasants out on the East Side and is now engaged in wholesale raising for the state.

Associated with him are Jason Sines, Wayne Sines, William Matthews, Burns McKisick, William Hemmersmith and Frank Tammario.

To get to the Charles G. Jordan farm, take the first road right, out of Harlanburg, and winding up over the hill travel one and a quarter miles.

As a means of rousing public sentiment the campaign for cleaner streets in Philadelphia will be introduced into the playgrounds. The "clean city" movement was started by the Civic club, of which Miss Frances A. Wister is president.

Here's a breakfast treat that's so crisp it crackles in milk or cream! Kellogg's Rice Krispies.

Rice in its most delicious form. Toasted bubbles of flavor. Children love them. Extra good with fruits or honey added. Order a red-and-green package from your grocer. Handy to use in candies, macaroons, etc. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

King of Kings will be presented on the photophone for the first time in the city with a tremendous synchronized musical score and marvelous effects.

ON BOARD THE S. S. LEVIATHAN, April 23.—Passengers on the S. S. Leviathan on this, the first westward voyage on which alcoholic beverages have been dispensed, simply refuse to take them drinking seriously.

The smoking room is getting only half patronized, and thus a poor second to the lounge as a popular attraction. This is understood by the fact that the smoking room has been completely deserted whenever the movies have been shown on board.

So far this voyage, the biggest feature in connection with the serving of drinks was the champagne dinner last night, given to Comité de Polignac, of Paris, to a brilliant assemblage of guests. Included among these were Constance Bennett, social star, who is the wife of Philip Plant, of New York; Miss Betty Histed of Chicago, who was voted the prettiest girl abroad the vessel; Arlette Marchal of Hollywood, and Victor Garand, the actor.

Miss Bennett is returning to the United States to make a talkie film for Pathé. Garand also may enter the talking picture.

An instance of how light the drinking is on board was the fact that about half of the wine opened at Comité de Polignac's dinner was left untouched.

Soldier In Texas On Trip To Maine To See His Sister
Before She Dies

(International News Service)
SANFORD, Me., April 23.—Some- where on the air route between Day- ton, O., Washington and New York today winged an army airplane racing against time and death.

Patrick Michael, member of the United States Army band at Kelley Field, Texas, was a passenger on the plane and he was traveling east as fast as the weather and the motors would permit, hoping to reach the bedside of his sister, Cecile, 17, before she dies. She is stricken with heart failure and has been given up by physicians. Her last wish was that she might see her brother before she passed away. He has not been home for five and a half years.

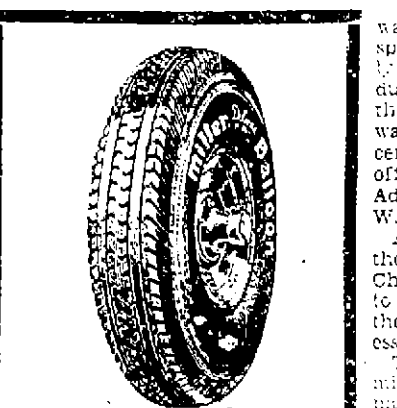

From Washington Michael will up in the next army plane north to New York. Then he will be aboard an army plane from New York to Boston. From Boston he will fly to Portland, Me., taking the train from Portland here. Joseph A. Michael and today his son was traveling on a special army air pass.

Factory Sponsors Work On Airplane Industry For City

Subscribers Meet At Elks Club Monday; D. S. Pyle Made Temporary Head

START ORGANIZATION
WORK FOR FACTORY

The airplane factory sponsoring group of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce met Monday night at the Elks Club at a dinner meeting to complete the efforts of establishing the proposed airplane factory in New Castle.

Approximately 25 men were present and the meeting was very enthusiastic. Local men who made talks regarding the proposition were W. J. Offutt, vice president, and chairman industrial department of the Chamber of Commerce; President Ira Ramsey; Adolph Green, E. W. Martsoff and O. H. Snyder.

A substantial block of the stock was subscribed and the enthusiastic spirit shown at the meeting practically assured New Castle of this new industry. The subscribers present at the meeting met immediately afterwards and elected temporary officers. The men chosen for temporary officers were D. S. Pyle, president; Adolph Green, treasurer, and James W. Cole, secretary.

At the close of the general meeting the industrial committee of the Chamber of Commerce was instructed to proceed in their efforts to obtain the balance of the subscriptions necessary immediately.

The members of the industrial committee and those added to it last night were: W. J. Offutt, Ira M. Ramsey, D. Roy Bradford, Robert J. Tully, T. H. Hartman, Frank Hoyt, Adolph Green, Mike Fisher, James M. Smith Jr., P. J. Flaherty, H. B. Richards, D. S. Pyle and Herbert Pears.

This committee met at the Chamber of Commerce office this morning and carried on the work of obtaining subscriptions.

Governor Will Discuss Merits Of Police Bills

Report He Will Explain Reason For Veto Of Mus-manno Bill

(BULLETIN)
HARRISBURG, April 23.—Governor John S. Fisher will discuss the relative merits of the Mansfield and Musmanno industrial police bills and his reasons for approving the former at the time he acts on the latter.

The Governor made this clear today in explaining his continued refusal to receive delegates which favor the latter bill. The Mansfield bill already has been approved. The Governor said that he will apply the same rule to the Musmanno bill that now obtains on all the other bills before him.

Although the governor did not say he will veto the Musmanno bill, it is known that he will. The veto message, a part of all bills which he disapproves, will explain in full his position in regard to the two bills. The governor said that there has been considerable "misrepresentation" with respect to the nature of the two measures. He intends to explain his interpretation of both. He asserted that he had approved the Mansfield bill upon his own knowledge of conditions, "without pressure of any kind" and that he assumed full responsibility for the action.

In further explaining his refusal to see delegations, the governor pointed out that he has 850 bills, exclusive of appropriations, upon which he must act within the next 22 days.

Aged Tionesta Doctor Is Dead

(International News Service)
TIONESTA, Pa., April 23.—Dr. Amos D. Douth, 70, widely known physician and oil and lumberman, died at Cleveland this morning following an operation, according to local received here.

Born in Beaver county, Dr. Douth resided in Tionesta for about 45 years. He was a member of the state House of Representatives about 20 years ago.

He leaves his widow, one daughter and several sisters.

Gigantic Bridge Girder Is Taken Through Streets

Girder, 80 Feet Long, Weighing 40 Tons Brought Overland

Three Days On Road Between Ambridge And New Castle

Probably the largest single load ever transported by truck in Lawrence county or perhaps in western Pennsylvania was delivered in New Castle today when the first steel girder for the new North street bridge arrived.

The girder is eighty feet long, weighs 40 tons, or 80,000 pounds, and was brought from Neville Island by way of Zelenopole and Ellwood. The trip was started Friday night, but delays waiting for permit from the state highway department, and slow movement on the road held the girder back until about two o'clock today when it reached the site of the new bridge.

Has Three Trucks.
To haul the immense girder it was first loaded on a turn-table arrangement on a front truck, with a heavy trailer under the end of it. Then two more trucks were hooked on behind to act as a drag on down hill grades and as pushers on upgrades. All of the trucks are solid tire trucks and the immense weight of the girder pressed the rubber clips on the solid tires down until they reacted like pneumatic tires.

It is doubtful if ever such a load was attempted in western Pennsylvania. Six men were on the crew handling it through from Neville Island and in order to get out to North street from East Washington street the girder was taken down to the public square, then after a difficult turn was turned into Jefferson street.

At North street it was necessary to remove a number of parked cars, then pull up about 100 feet and back into North street. The girder was backed all the way out North street to the bridge.

It was thought that truck transportation would be quicker and cheaper than railway transportation. The delay on the first girder will probably mean that the other three will be sent by freight.

Stock Market Is Dull Today

No Great Amount Of Outside
Interest In Stock Market
Trading Today

By W. S. COUSINS,
International News Service
Financial Editor

NEW YORK, April 23.—Aside from the speculative papers cut up by a few of the favorites in the oil, steel and specialty stocks, there was little to attract any great amount of outside interest in the market today. Not unexpectedly, the call money rate rose to 8 per cent when the banks sent in new demands on the money market for their midweek supplies and there was also a firmer tendency in the time money market.

Professionals and floor traders twisted a few of the high-priced speculative favorites in a spiral upward movement at a dizzying pace. Pool work was also evident in Stamps Petroleum and other low-priced industrials, in which transactions were at the highest volume of the year. It would be difficult to say whether or not these tactics brought in any great amount of outside speculative buying, but expert Wall Street opinion termed today's session as a professional market, pure and simple.

Rails Move Easily
The move in the railroad stocks was perhaps the most consistent of the day's events on the big board. New Haven improved on yesterday's best performance when the stock rose to 10 1/2, the highest price in 12 years. Bulls in New Haven stated that the road would earn at least $12 a share on the common stock this year, or about three times the dividend requirements. Erie sold up 3 1/4 to 74 and slightly higher prices were quoted for Chesapeake and Ohio, Pere Marquette, Pennsylvania and Southern Railway.

Including the large blocks of stock pushed through the market by the professionals, transactions in the first three hours were close to 1,000,000 shares each.

State Airplane May Land Here

Dr. C. J. Hollister, State Dental Chief, May Land At Bradford Field

Plans are being made by the New Castle Dental Club for the reception of Dr. C. J. Hollister, chief of the dental division of the State Board of Health who is expected to land at Bradford Field on the week of April 28.

The dental club here are observing Dental Health Week from April 29 to May 4, as is the case throughout the entire state. An educational program is being outlined by the committee in charge of the affair, and word has been received that the state head may land at the Bradford field.

Dr. Hollister is traveling through out the state by plane during the entire week and if present plans materialize, he will land here.

Should this be the case, the plane will drop posters and conduct an educational campaign by air under the auspices of the oral hygiene committee of the New Castle club. This committee is headed by Dr. R. C. Lutz who is assisted by doctors J. A. Meahan, J. P. Campbell, Jay Reed and Lee Hamilton.

Members of this committee inspected the local flying field today at noon and recommendations were immediately sent to the state head that he land there and make it his flying headquarters while in this city.

Army Aviator Is Held Responsible For Fatal Crash

San Diego Board Of Air Control Affixes Blame For Crash At Hearing Monday

OTHER PROBES TO BE MADE TODAY

Woman Features Writer Victim Of Passenger Plane Jots Down Important Notes

(International News Service) SAN DIEGO, Cal., April 23--Responsibility for the mid-air crash which resulted in the death of six persons here today had been affixed to Lieut. Howard W. Keefe, whose army pursuit plane crashed into a Maddux passenger plane Sunday. After questioning a number of witnesses, the San Diego Board of Air Control held that the army officer was to blame for the accident.

The army air service, the United States Department of Commerce and a coroner's jury will also make an investigation.

Two pilots of the Maddux plane, three passengers and Lieut. Keefe were the victims of the air tragedy.

Notes made by Miss Cecilia Kelly, one of the victims of the crash today were held in a safety deposit box pending investigation of the tragedy.

One of the last things she jotted down on a piece of note paper was: "Army plane--stunt--near!"

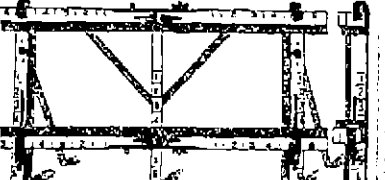

These notes, according to Maddux air line officials, will be used to show that Lieut. Keefe was responsible for the mid-air smash-up.

Miss Kelly was a feature writer for a Phoenix, Ariz., newspaper and was enroute to Phoenix when the Maddux plane in which she was riding was struck by the army pursuit plane piloted by Lieut. Keefe.

A Dormant Cupid

Society Bud And Son Of Norwegian Match King Finally Realize Their Love

Celeste Emilie von Phul, and inset of Fritz Heinrich Frolich, Jr.

By Central Press SEATTLE, April 23--Love, which laughs at locksmiths, has also saved a couple or two from snowstorms. It appears, with the announcement of the engagement here of Miss Celeste Emilie von Phul, Seattle society bud, and Fritz Heinrich Frolich, Jr., of Oslo, Norway, lieutenant in the king's guards and son of the multi-millionaire match king.

For although they had known each other for nearly three years, their acquaintance did not ripen into love until last January when they were marooned with a party of other young society people during a severe snowstorm which trapped them in a rustic mountain lodge near the White river entrance to Mount Rainier National park.

Cupid Steps In With their chaperone, the young people, out for a week-end frolic, had taken refuge in the lodge for the night. Morning found the road piled high with drifts and a real blizzard in progress. They were snowbound for nearly a week. Frovisions were plentiful, however, and the party rather enjoyed the wintry exile, while Cupid, unknown to the others, stalked in their midst. The young Norwegian gullant proposed shortly before the party was rescued by forest rangers who broke a trail through the drifts with a powerful tractor.

Frolich is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Heinrich Frolich, of Oslo, where his father is president and manager of the famous Nitadel Match company, a giant match monopoly allied with Swedish interests.

He is an all-around athlete, a star ski jumper, and was decorated by King Haakon when he won the decathlon--excelling in ten track and field events--at the Olympic Forestry of Norway. After graduating, he served as a lieutenant in the king's guards, coming to America to become a citizen in 1923. He was a schoolmate and intimate friend of Prince Olaf.

Debut At St. Louis Miss von Phul is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Philip von Phul. She was educated at Forest Ridge convent. She made her debut in a brilliant social season at St. Louis a few seasons ago.

The day after their betrothal was announced by Miss von Phul's parents, young Frolich left for Alaska, where he is an executive of a large fish packing company. He will remain north until the salmon run is over, returning to wed Miss von Phul in the autumn.

Grand Jury Will Hear Evidence In Death Of Smith Begin Drive To Enforce Rules In Roadside Stands

Samuel E. Bell, Oil Magnate, Will Tell Story Of Recent Fatal Fight To Jury

Samuel E. Bell, oil producer, is held in $10,000 bail on a charge of manslaughter and is accused of knocking Smith to the pavement when the latter attempted to enter a taxicab with Bell and Mrs. Robert L. Brown of Lexington, Ky. As they were leaving a party in the Park avenue apartment of Mrs. Robert W. Schuetz.

Now that the Gann question is temporarily shelved, the next problem is whether Ambassador Davies can wear an undershirt, but with knee breeches. The Times Herald State (Special In The News) HARRISBURG, April 23--Roadside stand inspection by personnel of the restaurant hygiene section of the State Health Department's bureau of communicable diseases will begin its work this week.

All roadside stands on the main and secondary highways throughout Pennsylvania will be carefully checked as to proper sanitary facilities, medical certificates for food handlers and adequate cleaning equipment for eating utensils.

In this connection Dr. J. Moore Campbell, chief of the bureau said, "While everything will be done by way of inspections and re-inspections to develop and maintain a safe type of roadside stand--many of such already exist in Pennsylvania--the main job in this important matter rests with the motorists themselves.

If they will patronize only those stands, large or small, that present a cleanly appearance both outside and inside and drink water at such stands only if the safe water sign of the department is in evidence, great assistance will be rendered to the department's activities and undoubtedly a better and safer service in many instances will result."

"The modern bride deserves the can opener." Yes, she lets the restaurant cook use it for her. The Santa Rosa Press-Democrat.

Proximity is versatile. It makes people fall in love and later makes them learn to divorce. The Helena Herald-Record.

"My China Sparkles Like Jewels"

"my hands look like strangers to the dishpan"

A Simpler Way to Wash Dishes

SPARKLING glass and gleaming china are as much a mark of social knowledge as good manners.

To have them--impeccable and flawless--and, at the same time, for the housewife to have enervating, white hands is a problem that has now been solved an interesting, new way.

Use any kind of soap, soap powder or soap flakes, in washing dishes. But add a teaspoon of CLIMALENE to the water.

This enables you to use ONE FOURTH the usual quantity of soap. For it softens the water instantly so that far less soap is needed.

Being a GREASE SOLVENT in itself, it DISSOLVES grease in instantly; and eliminates ALL FILM or scum from dishware. Makes it sparkle like new jewels.

Containing a special SKIN WHITENING, CLIMALENE SOFTENS and suggests a cloud of bubbles of beauty around the hands, soft and lovely beyond words.

Women are flocking to it. It costs only a dime at grocers. Try it. Just ask for Climalene.

Opening Date Of New Hospital May Be Advanced

Defect In Floor Material Received May Hold Up Completion Of Work

GRADING WORK TO START THIS WEEK

Although it had been originally intended to have the new Jackson Memorial Hospital completed and ready for occupancy by May 15, plans received a setback when part of the rubber floor tiles received in a recent shipment were found to be defective. The defective floor tiles have been shipped back to the factory, but will not be returned in time to have them laid by the middle of next month. The tiles were all right as far as the material is concerned, but they were not the same color as other tiles and hence do not match.

If the present good weather continues, the work of grading the lawn about the hospital will be started this week. The steam shovel which will do the work is already on the job and only a few days of sunshine to harden the ground is needed before this task can be started.

Equipment for the kitchen has been received and is being taken to the hospital for installation this week. The kitchen will be one of the show spots of the institution. It has been handsomely finished and the latest equipment to save time and labor has been purchased.

The nurses home, in connection with the hospital, is also practically complete, only the task of papering the rooms in the dormitories remaining to be done before the institution can be occupied. This will be done during the next two weeks.

PLAY WILL MARK Y. P. C. U. RALLY

Store Seed Corn Says Specialist

Crops Specialist Urges Storage
Of Corn; Advises Proper Care In Storage

"Farmers in this state can safely depend on ordinary crib storage for seed corn only one year in five," declares William Schmitz, farm crops extension specialist from State college. "This year it was more difficult to find poor germination than it has been to locate good vitality in the past two years, excepting where special care was given the seed."

Since the situation for next year cannot be foreseen, Schmitz urges preparing for the worst by storing seed corn in such a way as to have a supply in past years, the state extension specialist in advising farmers of the county to save all surplus seed corn this year in order that a supply will be on hand.

Any seed, states Schmitz, which has been hung up to dry previously, can be shelled now and be stored for later use in sacks in order that it may be protected from rats and mice. Seed that must be picked from the crib can be shelled during May and, if stored properly, will germinate well next spring.

Seed stored in metal containers or boxes should have holes punched in the lids for ventilation.

Thin hair? and that dandruff

When loose dandruff gets the upper hand, hair begins to fall out. Baldness often follows.

A quick, pleasant remedy for a dandruff condition is full strength Listerine, used systematically several days. You simply douse it on the scalp full strength and massage vigorously, using a little castor or olive oil when scalp or hair is excessively dry. Keep this treatment up for several days. You will be amazed at the quick improvement.

Detour Signs Are Erected By State

Detour signs at Bessemer and Edinburg are being erected by the local state highway department force today according to the statement of the local superintendent.

The detour at Bessemer borough will be seven miles long and traffic will be routed by Hillsville while work is being done on the direct highway to the state line.

The Edinburg detour will direct traffic by way of the Miller school to Hillsville.

Don't Be Overconfident About Longer Life

"The average reader is likely to become overconfident by the optimistic reports of longer life. And such an attitude is most natural in view of the repeated and correct assertion that the life span has been noticeably increased during the past few decades. However, this fact must be considered in the light of some very important qualifications," said Dr. Theodore B. Appel, state secretary of health today.

"While statistically correct, this material does not practically have any connection with that vast army of citizens who have attained the age of 50 or more years. Which is to say, that the real progress in lengthening life has been made only with those whose age class is under 50 and particularly among the infants and younger children. Or, expressing it in a slightly different fashion, the life expectancy of the infant of today has been advanced nearly 20 years but on the other hand that of the person over 50 has not been increased in the least degree. Which, after all, is the real crux of the problem so far as many of us are concerned.

"Now the sad part of this situation lies in the fact that approximately 200,000 annual deaths throughout the United States in adults over 50 years of age could likely be markedly postponed if the individual citizen would intelligently follow the rules of preventive medicine and those of modern medical and sanitary practices.

"For example the death rate from heart disease alone in Pennsylvania is responsible for nearly one-fifth of the adult deaths. Cancer, diabetes and tuberculosis are also in the forefront of the killers.

"If the over-confidence of people which breeds indifference to their physical welfare could therefore be displaced by care in the form of the annual physical examination, temperate eating and sufficient rest, a surprising drop in adult mortality would inevitably result.

"Certainly such an interest is not unrequited to request, and it may save your life—the most important thing in the world for you to save, therefore, why not develop it?"

Hi-Y Planning Spring Banquet

Annual Event Is Discussed At Meeting Monday Night

The New Castle Hi-Y held its regular weekly meeting at the Y. M. C. A. last night.

The main topic of discussion for the evening was the annual spring banquet. As a substitute a picnic was proposed and after the merits and demerits of each had been discussed action was deferred until next week.

The banquet has been the big social event of each Hi-Y year for some time but since one was held before the mid-year graduation it was thought that it might be best to cancel the plans this year.

A new plan for admitting members was discussed and referred to a committee. Members of the club who had missed more than three meetings were, as its required by the Constitution, dropped from the club. Two new members, Ed McGowan and Charles Hubbsen were admitted to the club.

It was announced that the Hi-Y Gospel team would have charge of the evening services at the Epworth M. E. church the first Sunday of May.

Mexican Rebels Show Strength

Federal Forces Lose Many Men To Rebels In Ambush Through Valley

FEDERAL SPY IS REPORTED EXECUTED

NOGALES, SONORA, Mexico, April 22.—Rebel commanders continued to hurry troops to the south today, in anticipation of a decisive battle which will probably be fought in the vicinity of Masaca. The federal forces under the command of General Cardenas are reported to be at Don Sonora, 20 miles south of Nogales.

Rebel headquarters today reported that the advance guard of General Juan Almazan's troops had been trapped in Pulpito Pass and suffered considerable losses. Twenty federalists were reported to have been killed, many wounded and 100 captured when they attempted to force their way through the Pass. Mines took a heavy toll and snipping of Yaqui Indians added to the casualties. It was reported.

Spy Is Executed

Pedro Robles, alleged to have been a federal spy, was executed here yesterday by a rebel firing squad. He was captured while inspecting rebel fortifications. He was executed in less than an hour after his capture.

Another member of the contingent of Nogales, Ariz., was arrested here a few days ago when he crossed the line. It is also believed that he was executed.

That General Francisco, Yaqui chieftain, has deserted the rebel cause was admitted here today by rebel leaders. He crossed the line late Sunday night and is now reported to be at Naco, Sonora, in conference with General Manzo and Bernal, who previously had defected from rebels.

Refugees arriving here from the south reported the people in the Yaqui and Mayo river valleys were in a desperate plight, as the rebels had confiscated all foodstuff in that vicinity.

Boy Sustains Broken Left Leg

A boy named Al Przybylski, and a resident of Hanna street, sustained a fracture of the left leg and other injuries of a minor nature last night when struck on Terrace avenue by the machine of Michael Leckor. He is now in the New Castle hospital doing as well as could be expected.

According to Mr. Leckor of 19 Elmwood street, he was going west on Terrace avenue near South Jefferson street, when this boy ran out into the street from a group which had been playing on the sidewalk and was struck and injured, being unconscious when first picked up.

Present Play At Westfield Thursday

Westfield grangers will act as hosts on Thursday evening in the hall on the Mt. Jackson-Emon road to the play cast of the North Lima grange. The title of the Ohio grange play is "He's My Pal."

This play will make the fourth which has been given at the Westfield hall during this past season.

The Westfield cast is going to New Springfield Friday evening of this week when they will give their performance in the school building.

This is the season when it is very difficult to sympathize with the man who is out of work.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Mahoning School Travel Club Plans Trip To Pittsburgh

Set Date For Saturday, May 4; Other News Notes Of Seventh Ward

Members of the Travel Club of the Mahoning school are contemplating a trip to Pittsburgh, Pa. The Travel Club is one of the educational clubs of Mahoning school and is sponsored by Miss Geneva Flemming.

For some time past this club has been planning to take a trip to Pittsburgh. The date has now been set for Saturday, May 4. They plan to go to the museum and visit other places of interest in Pittsburgh.

There will be between 25 and 30 pupils in the party. The club members are very enthusiastic about the trip, as this will be the first out-of-town excursion for them.

There are five educational clubs at Mahoning school this term. All of the organizations are active. Aside from the Travel Club there is a Nature Study Club, Newspaper Club, Booster Club and an Aircraft Club. The clubs all have meetings every two weeks. The clubs will have meetings the fourth period Wednesday this week.

REPORTS FRIDAY

On Friday of this week pupils of Mahoning school will receive their fifth reports of the present school term, or second report of the second semester of the school term. There will be only one more report after this one and this will be the report at the end of the school term. There is only about six more weeks of school in the present term. School is out for the summer vacation on June 6.

OLD BUILDING DOWN

The old house on the rear of the Solomon property at the corner of North Liberty street and Wabash avenue has been lowered to the ground. This property was formerly the Newell property until purchased by T. W. Solomon. At one time this old house was a stable. It was later remodeled into a small house. This was probably a half century ago. Mr. Solomon plans to have a lawn where the old building stood.

IMPROVING

Mrs. May Earls of East Cherry street, who has been very ill at her home, is improving.

POSTPONE PARTY

The birthday party to have been given on Wednesday by Mrs. Ernest Christy of East Clayton street for her daughter Lenora has been postponed indefinitely. Invitations for this party have been sent out, but on account of Lenora being ill it is necessary to postpone the party.

HEAR RETURNED MISSIONARY

A number of members of the Madson Avenue Christian church heard Dr. Royal J. Dye, a returned missionary from Africa, speak Monday evening in the Central Christian church. Members of the seventh ward Christian church received a special invitation from the Central Christian church members to attend this service to hear Dr. Dye.

SURPRISE PARTY

Mrs. Andrew Bovo, of North Wayne street, entertained at a party in honor of the eighth birthday of her daughter, Antoinette Bovo. The evening was spent in games and music. At a seasonable hour dainty refreshments were served by Miss Mary Plackett and Miss Evelyn McTaggart. The honor guest was the recipient of a number of pretty gifts. Guests included: Leora Ross, Irene Natale, Jennie Rozzo, Louise Dattilo, Annina Pecano, Mary Plackett, Evelyn McTaggart and the honor guest, Antoinette Bovo.

The Educational Clubs of Mahoning school will have their meetings Wednesday morning fourth period.

IMPORTANT MEETING

There will be an important meeting for all ladies of the Madison Avenue Christian church Wednesday evening at 7:45 in the church. It is urged that all be present.

C. H. U. M. CLUB

Mrs. Ray Horsman of the McMillin Apartments will receive the C. H. U. M. Club in her home Wednesday evening.

NEWSPAPER CLUB

The Newspaper club of Mahoning school sponsored by Miss Ruth Gilliam is active this year. This club publishes the school paper, "The Echo." It is the aim of this club to publish six school papers during the term. Three school papers were published during the first school semester. So far this semester one paper has been published and the club is working on the second issue of "The Echo."

D'FELICE-PIO

Announcement is made of the marriage of Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Camren D'Felice of Montgomery avenue, and Jerry Pio of Bessemer, Pa.

The ceremony took place Monday morning at St. Lucia's Italian Catholic church with Fr. Anthony Pece officiating. Supplementing the ceremony there was a wedding dinner at noon at the bride's home. Relatives and friends were present.

The bride and groom left on a short wedding trip and upon returning will reside on Montgomery avenue.

Two Gas Wells In North Beaver Plugged By Owners Awaiting Sale

Two gas wells, located on the farms of Mrs. Lydia Wilson and William Fullerton in North Beaver township near Deeringer's corner, which were drilled recently and found to be very productive, have been plugged. It is said.

The two wells which were drilled some weeks ago are in possession of a Youngstown, O., firm and have been plugged awaiting sale by the owners, according to the report.

Reports indicate that the two wells are very productive according to tests made.

Six Injured As Machines Crash

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, April 23.—When two automobiles crashed head on in Washington boulevard here early today, six persons were injured, one seriously.

NEWS ADVERTISEMENT FINDS LOST KEYS

Valuable keys belonging to Mary E. Wilson, 323 Boyles avenue, were lost over the week end and an advertisement was inserted last night in The News, telling of the loss.

The advertisement was read by George P. Mellen, well known street car operator who resides at 220 1/2 North Beaver street, who had found the keys in the gutter in front of the First Presbyterian church.

The owner was notified this morning and secured the return of the same.

Reserve Officers To Have Outing

State Gathering Is Being Arranged For May 30, 31,
June 1-2

There is general interest throughout the state in the seventh annual state convention of the Pennsylvania department of the Reserve Officers' Association, which will be held at Conneaut Lake, Pa., May 30, 31, June 1-2.

More than 400 reserve officers and their families will participate in the panorama of wartime which will be revived therein its peaceful aspects on the days of the convention.

And featuring the convention will be the contact camp conducted by the Ninety-ninth division in connection with the convention. This camp has been authorized by Major General F. W. Sladen, commanding general, Third Corps area. It will consist of four days' instruction of seven hours each. Colonel T. M. Anderson, infantry chief of staff of the Ninety-ninth division, will be in command of the camp. He will be assisted by his staff of regular army officers and officers of the Reserve association. Major G. B. Shaffer is general chairman of the convention.

The program of instruction has been arranged by Major Walter Moore, been arranged by Major Walter Moore, plans and training officer of the 99th division. It provides a thorough military practice in the field for infantry, artillery, engineers, cavalry, signal for the protection of educational, corps and quartermasters' officers, down to the State. The announced purpose is to promote the interest of reserve officers in the military service. A tentative program of lectures, exercises, and other features has also been arranged.

Full credit hours will be given for actual time spent in pursuit of the military program, but expenses will be paid by the individual officers.

For the ladies there will be dancing, teas and card parties with the Erie ladies in charge of the first day's program, New Castle the second, Pittsburgh the third and Philadelphia the last day.

The program for the convention follows:

Thursday, May 30—Morning, tactical walk, troop leading program, afternoon, separate conferences of all arms and branches; evening, address of welcome by Colonel Anderson and conference on "The Military Policy of the United States."

Passover Will Be Observed At Temple Israel

Special Services On Wednesday Evening And Thursday Morning

Special Passover services will be held at Temple Israel tomorrow, Wednesday evening at 8:15 and Thursday morning at 10:30. Rabbi J. B. Nathan officiating.

PASSOVER—THE FEAST OF EMANCIPATION

On Wednesday evening, April 24, 1929, Jewish the world over will begin its observance of the Feast of Emancipation, called in Hebrew "Pesach." Passover, according to the Bible, this holiday is celebrated for full seven days, and it is observed to commemorate the deliverance of the Israelites from Egyptian bondage. The feast is observed in many lands, and it is the oldest of Jewish feasts. The celebration of the first Passover, the night of the first Passover, is the origin of the feast. The feast is traditional in character and symbolizes the redemption of the Jewish people from the yoke of Egyptian bondage.

In its primitive origin Passover was a spring festival. When the Jews lived in Palestine and engaged in tilling the soil, the renewal of nature, the beginning of a new year, was the occasion of great celebration, and so, as a thank-offering to God, the Jews brought the first fruits of their barley harvest to Jerusalem, and offered it at the Temple with song and gladness.

With the flight of time, however, the Jewish people became removed from their ancient land and ceased to live an agricultural life. The agricultural aspect of Passover, therefore, gave way before the humanitarian aspect ascribed to it today. During the past two thousand years, Passover means in Jewish life as the anniversary of the redemption of the children of Israel from the hands of Egypt. This idea of freedom, so vividly depicted in the Book of Exodus, constitutes one of the basic principles which Jewish and the world is striving to achieve.

When the Egyptians reached the height of their power, they enslaved the children of Israel, who dwelt in their midst. At the pyramids and mines the slaves were forced to build. They craved beneath the tyrant's whip, and suffered all the tortures of slavery. In those days of bitterness and affliction there rose up Moses. His soul was fired with the spirit of freedom and justice. He came before the mighty Pharaoh and made him in the name of God to set his people free. Time and again the ruler of Egypt refused to grant them freedom. Finally, when the first-born sons of Egypt were smitten, Pharaoh sent the children of Israel out of his land; and Moses led them to Mount Sinai to worship God and to become a holy people unto God.

To commemorate this historic epic, the Jewish people celebrate the Feast of Passover. In its essence, however, Passover also symbolizes all the oppressions and persecutions that the Jewish people experienced their deliverance and survival. The Haggadah, which recounts the story of Exodus emphasizes this aspect of the festival in the words: "In every generation every man is duty-bound to consider himself as if he himself were delivered from Egyptian bondage." Throughout the ages this holiday inspired the Jewish people to keep alive the vision of freedom in the midst of physical servitude and oppression.

The services of Passover and the celebration of the "Seder" have ever been a source of joy and spiritual elevation to the Jewish people. They are based upon the vision of a free world free from physical and spiritual slavery. This message of freedom, Passover proclaims to Jewry and the world today as in the ages past.

Work Advances At Rapp's Mill Bridge

Riveting Of Steel Work New Underway; Span Will Be Credit To County

Steel beams for the new Rapp's Mill bridge over the Connoquessing river at a point just outside of Ellwood City have been erected and riveting work is now in progress. County Engineer Thomas A. Gilkey announced today.

The new span is located on state highway route No. 350, running from Ellwood City to Portersville. The bridge has a span 175 feet in length, a 20-foot roadway and one sidewalk seven feet wide. The floor of the bridge is of concrete.

The office of County Engineer Gilkey has supervised construction on the new bridge. The Ferris Engineering Company of Pittsburgh is the contractor for the work.

Beaver Gunman To Spend Ten Years In Prison

BEAVER, Pa., April 23.—James Howard, 35, Ambridge gunman and hold-up man and self-confessed dope addict, was arraigned before Judges Frank E. Reader and William A. McConnell at Beaver and his concurrent sentences of from five to 10 years each changed to from 10 to 20 years. One sentence is for shooting of A. D. Pew, manager of the Ambridge Gas Co. and the other two for robbery of that company.

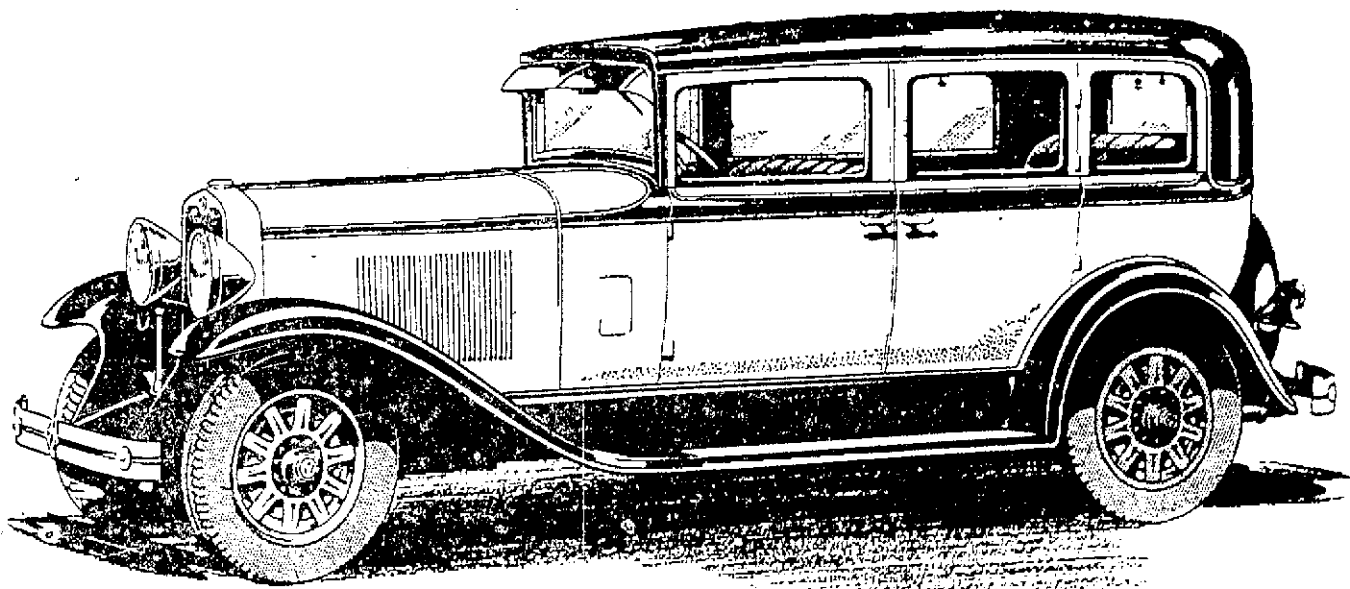

It is possible that when Howard serves his time other indictments will be awaiting for him for the robbery of a drug store in Corapolis. He confessed to this.

Howard was cool and calm when arraigned in court, having not the oratorical speech to the court he had when sentenced recently. Since he was sentenced the first time a desperate plot to escape from the jail while there and to shoot his way out of the courtroom by means of a smuggled gun has been discovered and a complete confession made of that plan by Mrs. Howard.

Vice Encouraged In Chester, Citizens Are Told In Fiery Talk

International News Service. CHESTER, Pa., April 23.—Lawless new flourish in this city not in spite of the law but by encouragement and protection of corrupt officials, Col. Samuel O. Wynnes, prohibition administrator for this district, charged in a speech here to more than 200 church workers.

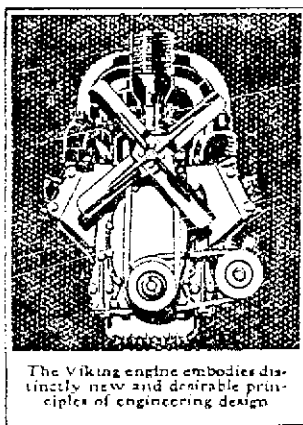

"Chester is a disgrace to Pennsylvania," Wynnes asserted. "The prohibition laws are openly flouted and while the city has 30 churches there are about 10 times as many speakeasies. For every church there is a disorderly house and a gambling establishment."

THE NEW VIKING

Ninety Degree V-type Eight

INTRODUCES New Qualities of Performance
-- New Tailored Smartness -- New Luxury and Comfort to the Medium Price Field --

THE VIKING, an entirely new car—a product of General Motors, built by Oldsmobile—brings to the medium-price field the advantages of ninety-degree, V-type, eight-cylinder design.

Never before has any medium-priced car offered more completely balanced performance—more brilliant styling—more luxurious comfort. Never has there been a more significant event in automotive history than the introduction of the new Viking.

Viking performance is the result of the ninety-degree, V-type principle—characteristic of high-priced cars—brought to a new high stage of development by the introduction of new engineering advancements based on well-established time-proven fundamentals.

This new engine delivers 81 horsepower, with exceptional smoothness throughout its entire speed range. Its response to the throttle is remarkable in all gears. Its top speed is more than ample for any emergency. And it provides a mighty power reserve for steep hills, long grades, and hard pulling.

An advancement that makes possible many of the new features of the Viking is the integral casting of the cylinder block and crankcase in one unit. This results in greater rigidity, easier accessibility, a new and highly efficient valve arrangement, and advanced cooling and lubrication.

The natural compactness of the Viking engine... the ribbing and trussing of the crankcase—the short, rigid crankshaft, which is counter-weighted for maximum balance—large, oversize bearings—and special shock-absorbing rubber engine mountings... assures exceptional smoothness, quietness, and long life.

Another important advancement in automotive engineering practice is the new Viking valve

PRODUCT OF GENERAL MOTORS

arrangement, which combines the fuel efficiency of the overhead location of valves with the quietness, simplicity, and rigidity of side-valve design.

The Viking engine is more accessible than the conventional automobile engine. For example, the valve mechanism may be easily reached by lifting the two horizontal cover plates located on top of the engine.

Fuel distribution is based on the down-draft principle. A new type of manifold takes the incoming fuel vapor always downward, after it leaves the carburetor—an equal distance to each cylinder.

In the new Viking lubricating system, all main, connecting rod, camshaft, and rocker arm bearings are pressure-lubricated—as are the piston pins—through rifle-drilled connecting rods. Oil dilution is prevented by crankcase ventilation. Injurious foreign matter is removed by the new Viking precipitating-trap system of oil cleaning.

Cooling is also exceptionally efficient. Equal manifold distribution of the water in the twin blocks, with graduated outlets direct to points of greatest heat, assures uniform, efficient cooling of the entire engine. Cylinder walls, valves, valve stem guides, and combustion chambers are water-jacketed. There is an engine temperature gauge on the dash, and thermostatically-controlled radiator shutters are standard equipment.

And the great Viking ninety-degree, V-type, eight-cylinder engine is mounted in a great chassis—a chassis that is truly noteworthy for its strength and balance.

The strong, rigid frame is built of heavy steel reinforced by five stout cross-members. It tapers to the front to permit a short turning radius and is low-slung to provide a low center of gravity.

The wheelbase of the new Viking is 125 inches. It is equipped with oversize mechanical four-wheel brakes of the new two-shoe internal-expanding type. Four Lovejoy hydraulic shock absorbers, synchronized with the spring action, assure restful riding comfort.

The bodies of the new Viking are the smartest, latest style creations of Fisher artist-engineers. In designing the Viking, they sought distinction along the most difficult path—the achievement of beauty and grace through simplicity. The result justifies their diligence, for the new Viking takes its place among the smartest of cars, regardless of price.

In keeping with their beauty, the Viking bodies are luxuriously furnished. There is plenty of head room and leg room. Seats are deep-cushioned, and incline at just the right angle to provide arm-chair comfort. Upholsteries and appointments are rich in quality and tasteful in design.

For the driver's comfort and convenience, both steering wheel and front seat are adjustable, making the driving position a matter of individual choice. All controls are easy to reach and to operate. Dash instruments are grouped under glass on a handsome, directly or indirectly lighted panel.

Because it provides, at a medium price, qualities of advanced design, beauty, luxury, performance, and stamina heretofore found only in costly cars, the Viking is a value leader.

The new Viking is now on display. Come and see it. Inspect it closely. Take it for a trial drive. Compare it critically with other cars. You can come to only one conclusion—that the new Viking offers a combination of appearance, performance, and value unsurpassed by any other car.

(International News Service) LANSING, Mich., April 23.—Formation of a radio service corporation by the Ford interests was revealed here with the filing of a request before the state public utilities commission for approval of a $100,000 stock issue by the Ford Communication company, a Delaware concern.

Hearing on the request was set for April 30. Edsel Ford heads the new company as president and treasurer. His father, Henry Ford, is listed as a director. Peter E. Martin is listed as vice president and B. J. Craig as secretary. A. V. Lane, L. E. Gray and C. S. Peabody, all of Wilmington, Del., which will be the company's headquarters, are listed as directors.

MT. HERMON

There will be services at Hermon next Sunday afternoon at the usual hour.

The Missionary Society will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory on an all-day meeting Thursday. Miss Davenport, teacher of the Shaw school, and a number of her pupils started early Saturday morning on a motor trip to Baltimore, Chesapeake Bay and Gettysburg will be points of interest visited. Those interested were Jennie Viola Munnell, Eleanor Gibson, Wendell Dean, Harry Jones and Thelma Dean.

Mrs. Viola Book entertained a few friends informally at a quilting Wednesday. A delicious dinner was served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Bessie Dean. Those present were Mrs. Mary Young, Mrs. Cora McConnell, Mrs. Ella Gibson, Mrs. James White, Mrs. Nancy Blair and daughter Juanita, Mrs. May Dean, Mrs. Florence Stevenson and son Glen, Mrs. Bessie Dean, Mrs. Anna Book and son Clair and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallace of Mt. Jackson were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Stevenson Thursday. Wilberta Beak was the guest of Rose Munnell Friday night. Miss Gladys White was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Book and family Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. George Dean and children, Merle, Leslie, Russell, Alfred and Blanche, were the guests of Mrs. Viola Book and family Sunday.

Floyd Stevenson was the guest of Clyde Young Thursday evening.

Hoover Nominates Ex-Senator Lenroot As Customs Judge

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, April 23.—President Hoover Monday sent to the senate the nomination of ex-Senator Irvine L. Lenroot (R. of Wisconsin) to be a judge of the U. S. court of customs appeals. Lenroot, who was general counsel for the Hoover forces in the pre-convention maneuvering and in the delegate contests at Kansas City was originally nominated for this post by President Coolidge, but his opponents blocked confirmation in the closing days of the last session. His nomination will be opposed by cause of his legal services to the so-called power trust, and to his activity in trying to defeat the Walsh re-election to investigate that trust.

Vets To Start Three-Day Drive

Will Conclude Membership Campaign With Concerted Effort This Week

Plans have been completed by members of the Harry I. McBride Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, for a three-day membership drive, opening April 24 and closing the evening of April 26, when it is hoped to add many more members to the post.

Chairman James Bell and members of the drive committee will meet in the post hall Wednesday evening, with plans for the campaign to be completed and a prospect list secured.

Chairman Bell asks all members of the Post who are interested in its welfare to come to the Legion Home Wednesday evening and assist in putting the campaign over. The membership of the post has already been materially increased as a result of Mr. Bell's activity, now numbering well over 100 members.

Alleged Forger Is Under Arrest

International News Service. PITTSBURGH, April 23.—The arrest of Edward Reimann, alias Edward Rice, 26, in a downtown apartment store here when he is alleged to have attempted to cash a forged money order was believed by federal authorities to have ended a search of several weeks for an alleged forger and swindler whose operations were nationwide.

It is alleged that Rice had cashed seven $75 money orders, all forged here before his arrest.

According to Postal Inspector George V. Craighead, into whose custody Rice was given by Police Magistrate Thomas Jones, Rice stole the money order blanks in Toledo. He returned the next day and stole the substitution's official stamp. Craighead claims.

With the blanks and stamp, Rice began a tour of the large cities cashing the forged money orders, mostly in department stores, according to the postal inspector.

Martin To Speak To Booster Club

Members Of New Castle Automobile Association Will Attend Meeting

Attorney Charles G. Martin, solicitor for the New Castle Automobile Association, and prominent local attorney, will be the principal speakers at the meeting of the Booster Club in the city building Wednesday evening.

About 75 members of the association, which includes auto dealers, accessory dealers, and gasoline dealers expect to attend the meeting.

Several interesting reports are expected from committees which have been working hard during the past few days on Booster Club projects.

Masonic Funds Are Also Short

YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 23.—Officials of the Masonic Temple, Niles, announced today that the accounts of Carter C. McConnell, treasurer are short between $15,000 and $17,000.

This shortage is in addition to McConnell's defalcations at the McKimley Savings and Trust company, Niles, of which he was secretary and manager. The bank is short in excess of $50,000.

No trace of McConnell has been learned since he mysteriously disappeared a week ago tonight while on his way to a bank meeting. A young woman employee of the bank had informed him last Monday that his accounts were wrong and it is believed this impending discovery of his shortage prompted McConnell to flee.

Card Of Thanks

I desire to thank the friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy extended during the illness and death of my husband, Wm. Wighton; also for the beautiful floral tributes and for cars donated.

Above Mexico's War

This man probably has seen more of the troop movements and general warfare now going on in Mexico than any other one person, yet he is in no way connected with the revolution, nor interested in it. He is Capt. Eddie Bellande, air line pilot, whose route lies along the border and affords him a comprehensive view of the skirmishes.

Debate Contests For Slippery Rock

Two Forensic Combats Are On Schedule For Teacher's College Students

SLIPPERY ROCK, April 23.—The negative debating team of Slippery Rock State Teachers college will have the middle of the week to debate Junata college on Thursday evening April 25 and Shippensburg State Teachers college on Friday evening April 26.

Junata college will not send its negative team to Slippery Rock on Thursday evening so there will not be any debate in the home chapel that evening but Shippensburg will send its negative team Friday evening April 26.

The members of Slippery Rock's affirmative team who will debate at home are Russell Morgan, Ethelyn Hargre, Ruth Horowitz and Mayer Golden. Alternate, Shippensburg will be represented by Wilbur Wezel, Alfred Elchenberger, Mulhard Heim and Earl Baileys alternate composing the negative team.

The judges of the home contest are Earl D. Brunner, superintendent, George J. Republic, Grove City; Prof. E. R. Patterson, assistant principal senior high school, New Castle; Hon. George I. Woner, president of the Zeigler Publishing Co., Butler.

New Mercer County School To Be Opened

Dedication Exercises Of Fine New Consolidated Building To Be Held

MERCER, Pa., April 23.—Dr. Lee Driver, head of the bureau of rural school consolidation of the state board of education, will make the dedicatory address on the evening of April 26 when the $50,000 common school building in Hempfield township is properly dedicated.

Other well known educators who will be there for the event and take part are Dr. P. D. Blair of Crawford county, superintendent of schools; Dr. Clyde E. Xander, president of Third college; Dr. G. B. Gerbrich of the Greenville schools; Judge J. A. McLaughry and Farm Agent W. S. Hagan.

Prof. L. M. Taylor is principal of the combined schools.

ALIENS PASS TESTS
A total of 28 out of 33 aliens listed for examination here at the office of the county prothonotary, prior to their final examination in September, reported to the office on April 18 and 19. Very creditable examinations were passed by the group. It is reported by Mrs. J. C. Morse, the official.

FIRST SCHOOL CLOSURE

The first school to close its 1928-29 term was that in Perry township on April 18. Schools will be closing almost daily now during the remainder of April and May.

The 15 high schools of the county all close in June this year for the first time in school history. This is due to the 9-month term in all of them.

SEEKS PARTITION
John Ray of Ashtabula, O., has brought suit in equity against William A. Swartz, whose present address is not known.

Swartz was left 26 acres of land in Greene township on the death of his parents, Andrew and Mary Swartz of that locality. The father left a three-fourths interest, the mother the remainder. The estate of the father was sold to pay his debts. It is this land that was purchased by Ray, who now desires a partition.

The bill sets forth that sale of his interest is impossible.

The court is asked to make an order for sale of the entire property.

ENTRANCE EXAMS

High school entrance examinations in 13 Mercer county high schools will be held on May 11, it is announced today at the office of the superintendent of schools.

On these tests depend the entrance of scholars from rural schools to the town schools. There will be 500 eligible to take the test.

Will Present Concert At Senior High Tonight

While the time for arrangements has been short, and no tickets printed, the concert of the New Castle Senior high school band, orchestra and choruses, scheduled for this evening in the high school auditorium promises to be a success.

The purpose of the concert is to provide funds for the transportation of the 42 students who will compete in the state contest in the Northeastern Pennsylvania elimination contest. A special train will be run on April 26 and some $200 is still needed for the total transportation needed.

The program tonight will consist of the numbers to be played in competition in Erie and this feature alone should attract many to the concert.

Plane Crashes Show Decline

Crashes Of Airplanes Due To Mechanical Failure Are Shown To Be On Decline

SCIENCE PERFECTS AIRCRAFT MACHINERY

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Aeronautical science has perfected aircraft machinery to such a degree that accidents due to mechanical failure are shown to be on a decline.

On the other hand, the increase in accidents directly attributable to errors and carelessness of pilots and other personnel increased at an alarming rate during the last months.

Official reports for the last six months show that a majority of all air fatalities are now attributable to pilots' carelessness or errors rather than to mechanical defects. For the first six months of 1928, 46 percent of the accidents were attributable to personnel faults and for the last six months of the year 53 per cent were attributed to an increase of 12 per cent.

Poor technique of pilots, the result of insufficient aeronautical training was the chief source of accidents in the year with a percentage of 29.8. This figure was 23 per cent for the first six months.

Of all accidents attributable to personnel only those due to disobedience of orders declined, dropping from 5 to 2.6 per cent.

Less than 16 per cent of the last year's accidents resulted from motor trouble and less than 5 per cent from other structural failures of planes. Other accidents caused by weather, darkness, airports and terrain remained about the same.

Boy's Confession About Abduction Pure Invention

Mania For "Cheap Publicity" Cause Of Action Of Youngstown Boy

YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 23.—A mania for "cheap publicity" prompted 15-year-old Harold Harshman to invent a story of having abducted Beatrice Rosenbaum, 10, a year ago and abandoning her to die. Prosecutor Ray L. Thomas said today.

Harshman, picked up by detectives last Saturday on a bad check charge, "confessed" that he was the kidnaper of Beatrice, whose body was found in a ravine near Salem last May, and then repudiated his story with the admission that he was seeking notoriety.

The boy was held in the county jail while authorities debated whether to turn him over to juvenile officers.

Harshman became familiar with the Rosenbaum case when the girl was kidnapped last May 14, having continually followed searches for the girl during the 13 days that elapsed before her body was found.

Beatrice, a sub-normal girl, who could scarcely talk, was found dead in a ravine near Salem. Authorities believed that she had been left there and was incapable of making her way to assistance. She died from starvation, according to the coroner's verdict.

Drawing Of First U. P. Church, Now Being Erected

Work on the brick laying and structural steel work is getting under way at the Glenmore boulevard and Albert street site of the new First United Presbyterian church. The basement will be completed last fall, when winter delayed work.

The construction work is now being resumed and before fall the new edifice should be well towards completion. The congregation have been held in the Y. W. C. A. auditorium since the old church was destroyed by fire, a year and a half ago. The ruined structure was located on North Jefferson street near the public square. Services for the congregation have been held in the Y. W. C. A. auditorium since the old church was destroyed by fire, a year and a half ago.

Police Capture Youth, Students Hear Automobile And Calf World War Hero

Car Taken In Ellwood City Is Recovered In New Castle

Youth And Calf Are Found In Machine When Located

To Officer Richards goes the credit of capturing one of the most unusual combinations that have been apprehended by the police in some time, namely a young man, an automobile and a calf.

It was about eleven o'clock last night, when the police here were asked by the Ellwood authorities to be on the lookout for a Nash coach bearing Pennsylvania license 669-706 which had been stolen from the streets of that city.

Officer Richards discovered a car answering the description of the stolen car on Home street. This car, however, bore license number 208-885, which later proved to be the number of the car of W. L. Harris.

In the car, Officer Richards found an Ellwood City youth and a small calf. The young man, who gave the name of Frank Taylor stated that the man who was driving the car was in a nearby house getting a drink. He claimed to know nothing of the stealing of the machine or the calf, asserting that the driver whom he knew by sight but not by name had asked him to go along to Youngstown, where the calf would be disposed of.

Officer Jess Becher and other officers from Ellwood City were notified and arrived in a short time taking the automobile and calf with them.

According to the local police, the Ellwood City police had data to the effect that four men were in the car at first and headed toward Beaver Falls, and it is believed that the calf was stolen while on that road.

Taylor was found to be without a driver's license and is being held in the city jail pending a decision in the matter. Investigation resulted in being determined that Taylor had served a term in the Allegheny county jail on a charge of stealing automobiles. The stolen machine was the property of W. L. Harris of Ellwood City.

Three Million Is Involved Today In Enormous Stock Sale

NEW YORK, April 23.—A block of 100,000 shares of Simms Petroleum sold at the opening of the stock market today at $50 a share, up 1 1/2 from the previous close. This is the first time in the history of the big board that a 100,000-share block sold in a single transaction, the turn-over representing an investment of $3,000,000.

Home Is Burned Near Ellwood

House On New Brighton Road Burns At Midnight

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., April 23.—Home of Tony Innocent located on the New Brighton-Beaver Falls brick road, about three and one-half miles from this city, was completely destroyed by a fire of unknown origin and rather suspicious circumstances last midnight.

The family occupying the house moved their furniture several days ago, it is said, and the house was unoccupied and without fire in it as far as is known.

It was a substantial four-roomed affair with an out kitchen and the entire structure was destroyed. The loss is estimated at $5,000.

According to statements made to the police here one unusual feature concerning it is the fact that the car of W. L. Harris, which was stolen last night and recovered by the New Castle police authorities, was known to have been in the vicinity of the fire and with four men in it.

Another story afloat concerning the fire is in regard to some insurance that is said to have been taken out on it, according to the authorities.

Jones-Laughlin Earnings First Quarter Are Big

PITTSBURGH, April 23.—The net income of the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation and subsidiary companies for the quarter ended March 31 last, was $5,244,179, according to the consolidated income account issued by the company here today.

The total earnings after deducting all expenses incident to operations, including repairs and maintenance of plants and estimated provisions for all local, state and federal taxes, was shown at $8,997,537, from which reserves for depreciation and depletion of $1,495,610 and interest on bonds of $177,798 were deducted, giving the total net income.

The dividends on preferred stock, as listed at $1,027,514 and on common stock at $726,400. This subtracted from the net income will be carried to surplus. It amounts to $2,562,255.

Lions Club Hears Private McCollum

Makes Address At Regular Noon Meeting Today; Here Because Of Legion Post

Students of the Ben Franklin junior high and the Senior high school, heard "Buck Private" McCollum, survivor of the Lost Battalion of world war fame, relate the story of his spectacular incident which occurred in the Argonne Forest during the advance of the American army, this morning.

At noon, Mr. McCollum spoke to members of the Lions club and this afternoon is addressing the students of the George Washington junior high school.

This evening at 8 o'clock, Mr. McCollum will speak to the public at an open meeting in the Legion home building, when Legionnaires and citizens will listen to his remarkable story.

The 1st Battalion of the 368th Infantry, 77th Division, under command of Major Charles W. Whittlesey, received an order to advance, "regardless of losses."

Major Whittlesey obeyed orders, the objective was gained but the battalion found itself cut off. McCollum relates how the 700-odd men were entrapped on a hillside, how the rations ran out after the first day, and how the ceaseless bombardment of the guns drove men frantic from the noise. Scores of men were killed in an attempt to carry water from a little spring at the foot of the hill.

He relates how Private Lowell R. Hollingshead a youth of 18, was captured by the enemy and forced to carry back a demand for surrender. Finally Private Abra Krotoschinsky broke through the German lines and carried back the message that brought aid.

Keystone Alleys Are Robbed Again

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., April 23.—Keystone bowling alleys in the Simon building on Lawrence avenue, were robbed some time last night between midnight and 2 o'clock this morning. Cash to the amount of $35 was taken. This is the second or third time that the place has been robbed in the past few weeks.

The Hoopes, a peculiar bird with a movable semi-circular crest on the top of its head, a native of Africa, was a bird of God, of kindness and devotion, to the people of northern Africa, but a bird of ill-omen, a Bringer of War, thought northern Europe as it saw the Hoopes on its migrations.

Pelicans have long depressed bills, and a sort of pouch suspended beneath, enabling the bird to hold a number of fish in reserve for future consumption.

A very urgent invitation to the people of New Castle to attend the classes in DUCO Decoration which we will hold this week in our store on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday

You will want to join the interesting and profitable classes in DUCO decoration which we will hold in our store. An experienced decorator will conduct these classes and will gladly help you solve your decorating problems.

There is color everywhere in the home today. Sombre tones are giving way to bright, cheerful colors. The old-fashioned garden has transferred its delicate colors into the living room. Soft blues and greens for tables and chairs, warm reds and yellows for desks and dressers. Even the kitchen, mother's own workshop, has blossomed forth in color.

It's so easy to use DUCO—even without any painting experience you can be certain that the finished result will live up to your expectations. DUCO dries so quickly that an article finished in the afternoon is ready for use the same evening and the deep, rich DUCO surface will remain bright and lustrous for many seasons to come.

Instruction is FREE to all who attend

In the decoration classes, many new and novel finishes will be demonstrated and taught. Learn the art of stippling, of stenciling, of antiquing; let the decorator show you how to obtain the beautiful tiffany and two-tone effects.

Bring in some small article from home and finish it in DUCO yourself, under the guidance of the decorator. The only charge will be for whatever materials you may use.

This practical demonstration will enable you to transform scores of articles you now have in your home—which you may think are worthless—into objects of beauty and practical use.

Highway Forces Must Obey Safety Campaign Rulings

HARRISBURG, April 23.—Accident prevention in the eight divisions of the Pennsylvania Department of Highways received official impetus when W. H. VanDuzer assistant chief engineer circulated an order to the various maintenance and construction chiefs. A survey of accidents and injuries resulted in the following instructions from the assistant chief engineer:

1. Place safety-first posters in buildings.
2. Permit maintenance employees to work only one-half the road at a time leaving the other half free for traffic.
3. See that signs showing that men are at work are placed at each end of the operation.
4. Do not allow gasoline to be used for cleaning equipment.
5. See that mechanics striking steel or men carrying stones wear goggles.
6. Do not maintain in your employ men who are careless or thoughtless.
7. Do not allow men to get on or off moving trucks.

"I hope you will watch this phase of your work during the coming working season and keep your accidents below what is now the minimum," was VanDuzer's comment. "Every industrial organization will do well to follow this code."

STATE PLANS TO DIVERT WATER

Will Turn Township Water On Euclid To Sheridan Course

City officials have been armed with advance notice to the effect that when New Wilmington highway, beginning at the city line, is widened by the state, water which now is diverted by the city into a waterway on Sheridan avenue will be diverted by the state on Euclid avenue east to the same waterway.

A year ago, according to city officials, Wilmington avenue within the city limits was filled with ice.

To avoid this the city built a sewer from Wilmington avenue east to the natural waterway on Sheridan avenue.

The state plans to divert the water on Euclid avenue east to the same natural water course.

City officials do not like the proposed plan, due to the fact that the city is now being sued for diverting the water where they say it belongs.

"What can the city do about it?" an official was asked.

"Nothing much," replied the official.

Four Fine Matches In Tennis Tourney Monday Evening

Finals In Y. W. Tournament Are Scheduled For Next Monday Evening

Monday witnessed four more eliminations in the Y. W. C. A. Indoor Tennis Tourney. The first match at 5 o'clock between Mary Towell and Lillian Ekblom was the feature match of the day. Both girls are experienced players and play a hard game.

The second set of the match was brim full of rallying and fine playing of balls. However it seems that in the third set Miss Ekblom was not up to par and let Miss Towell get the first four games without much defense, the set going to Miss Towell.

The second match was Leona Sankey playing Mildred Weisbaker at 6 o'clock. This match was fair but not as thrilling as the preceding match.

At 7 o'clock Lena John was eliminated from the tourney in her match with Myrtle Burnett. This match was quite one sided and resulted in a love contest.

At 9 o'clock a most interesting match was witnessed between Ruth Jamison and Dee Rech. In the first set Miss Rech had things her own way but in the second set Miss Jamison came into her own and captured the set with some fine playing. Both girls employ very hard serves which are quite difficult to return.

Scores: first match, 6-3; 6-8; 6-1; Towell.

Second match, 6-1; 6-1; Sankey.

Third match, 6-0; 6-0; Burnett.

Fourth match, 6-2; 4-6; 6-1; Rech.

Tonight's match, Marie Fleckenstein versus Dee Rech at 6 o'clock. Finals in the tournament will be played next Monday evening.

TO BE SOLOIST IN JUNIOR HIGH CONCERT MAY 7

Ruth Phillips, Eighth Grade Student, Will Play Xylophone
In Spring Exhibition

RUTH PHILLIPS

Ruth Phillips, student in Grade 8B1 at the Benjamin Franklin junior high school, will have an important part in the first spring concert to be given there May 7 under the auspices of the instrumental music department of the school.

Miss Phillips will play the xylophone with the first and second orchestras, and will in addition to this render a xylophone solo that evening.

In her school work, Ruth has a high scholastic standing and is prominent in many activities. She is also an exceptionally talented dancer, having danced in "Parr" when it was produced at the Cathedral recently.

The concert will be given at the Benjamin Franklin school in the observance of national music week which is scheduled for the period from May 5 to 11.

Committee Reports New Farm Measure To Senate Today

New Half Billion Farm Relief Plan Handed To Senate; Debate Plan Included

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The new $500,000,000 farm relief bill carrying the debenture export bounty plan opposed by President Hoover, was reported to the Senate this afternoon by its Agriculture committee with a recommendation for its immediate enactment.

The report, filed by Senator McNary (R) of Oregon, chairman, declared the farm problem was non-partisan and urged the Senate to give the bill non-partisan consideration. He carefully explained how a majority of the committee by a vote of 8 to 6 had incorporated the debenture plan over the president's opposition.

Lloyd Waner Greets His Wife-To-Be And Eats Fine Breakfast

International News Service.
PITTSBURGH, April 22.—Elaborate arrangements made to convey the members of the Pirate baseball team to the Oakland district, where they open the Pittsburgh season tomorrow, failed to daunt Lloyd Waner, the Pirate star centerfielder.

Waner took orders from dan cupid rather than Barney Dreyfuss. He made a bee-line to the home of his fiancée, Miss Frances Mae Snyder, as soon as the squad air town, and he was in Oakland, at her home, enjoying a breakfast she prepared long before the rest of the squad reached the district.

He planted a resounding smack on Miss Snyder's lips, all unmindful of the newspaper photographer whose clicking camera recorded the homecoming.

Blue Triangle Club Of Y. W. Planning For Tennis Court

Members of the Blue Triangle Club of the Y. W. C. A. are planning to have a tennis court to use this spring and summer. The girls have the use of some ground and are now ready to have a court built.

The club has decided to take bids for the building of their tennis court. Bids may be submitted to the Girl Reserve secretary of the Y. W. C. A., Miss Grace Lowers. These should be made at once as the girls are anxious to have their court ready as soon as possible.

Reparations Accord No Where In Sight

By FREDERIC K. ABBOTT
International News Service Staff
Correspondent
PARIS, April 23.—Although a complete break-up of the conference of reparations experts was averted, for the time being, at today's plenary session, indications from authoritative sources late today were that the German and allied experts were still as far apart as ever concerning the value and the number of annuities to be paid.

The official communiqué, issued in the name of all the delegations participating in the conference immediately following the close of today's session, was silent on this aspect of the conference.

It merely stated that a special committee, composed of the chiefs of the various delegations, had been appointed to draw up a report on the work of the conference. This report, when completed, will be sent to each of the several governments interested.

Meanwhile, the door was left open to permit a renewal of the discussion of figures upon which so far the conference has been unable to agree.

Little hope, however, is held out that such an agreement will be reached, the general feeling here being that two separate reports, a majority report and a minority report, will be prepared.

The Central and Fifth ward departments were called to the home of John Davis of 1202 Sciota street, Monday afternoon at 2:35 by an alarm from box 53.

Children playing with matches had set fire to the home, the blaze catching between the weather boarding and the plaster and burned up through the wall to the second floor. Damage to the extent of $100 was done by the blaze.

Coal Man Resents Coast Guard Act Boy On Bicycle

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 23.—T. A. D. Jones, wholesale coal company head and former Yale athlete, today engaged counsel to represent him in a strenuous protest against the action of the Coast Guard Cutter Seneca which fired upon his Collier, the T. A. D. Jones, fifty miles off the Jersey coast.

Mr. T. C. during the coming summer, will meet for discussion of military problems in the office of the unit instructor, Capt. M. L. Chain in the Temple building, Thursday evening.

The subject for discussion, Thursday evening will be "Interior Guard Duty." Capt. Chain requests a full attendance of local Reserve Officers.

Jack Ginsberg, of 1005 Delaware avenue, reported to the police today that he was driving from East Long avenue onto South Mill street, and had parked his machine in front of a store on Mill street, leaving one door open so that he could get out, when a Western Union messenger boy on a bicycle ran into the door and the boy was knocked off the bicycle. Neither the boy or the bicycle were injured and the boy went on his way without Mr. Ginsberg learning the name of the boy.

News Of The World As Told In Pictures

FARMER FIGHTERS REPLACE REBEL FORCES IN JUAREZ

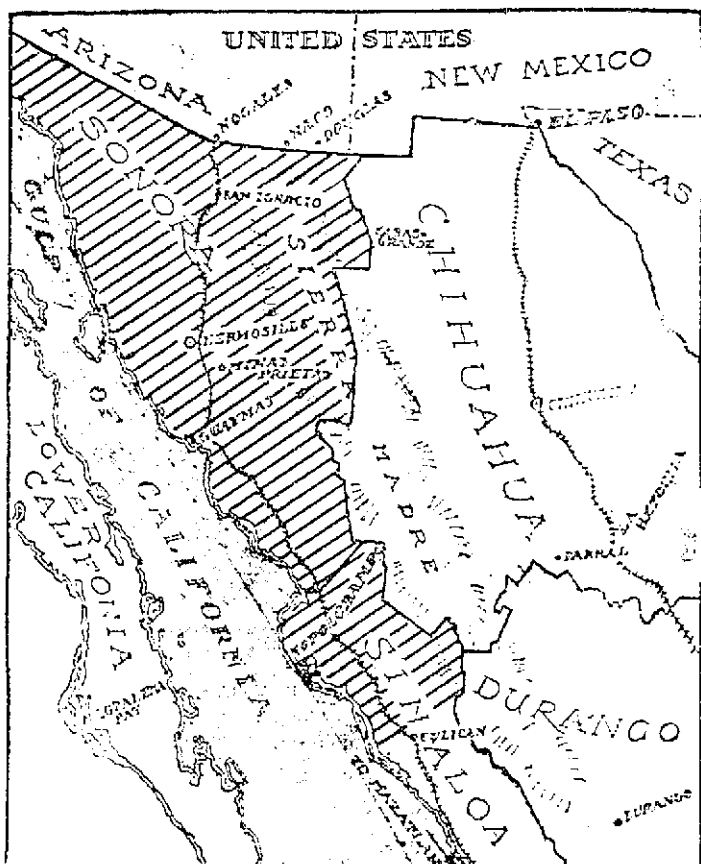

With the evacuation of Juarez, Mexico, across the border from El Paso, Tex., by rebel forces, this army of federal farmers, organized at Guadalupe and armed with pitchforks, farm implements, and such rifles as they could muster, has taken possession of the border city. The rebel force moved westward to Sonora to join a troop concentration in that state. Photo shows the farmer army, under Manuel Prieto, as it took over the city.

AS FEDERAL TROOPS ROUNDED UP JIMINEZ PRISONERS

This photograph from the Mexican war zone shows a portion of the 2,000 prisoners taken by the federal forces at the battle of Jiminez. Nearly 100 miles of railroad tracks were destroyed by the rebel troops between Torreon and Jiminez to delay the advance of the governmental troops.

Mexican Revolt Near Collapse

Driven from Chihuahua by the presence of General Calles' forces, the army of General Escobar, rebel leader, is crossing the Sierra Madre mountains into Sonora. In the meanwhile, General Calles is personally leading another Federal army against the rebels in Sonora, north of Culiacan. These movements, in addition to the reported rebel evacuation of Juarez, leave little territory still in insurgent hands.

VIRGINIA BEAUTY TO BE MARRIED

Engagement is announced of Miss Dorothy Lyell Lambert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde M. Lambert of Waynesboro, Va., to William H. Mondell, son of the former representative from Wyoming and Mrs. Frank W. Mondell.

Bankruptcy Inquiry Promises Sensation

Following the finding of the coroner's jury, above, which stated that David Steinhardt, fugitive bankruptcy lawyer, took his life by poison at Philadelphia, U. S. Attorney Tuttle is beginning efforts to bring about a complete disclosure of the supposed bankruptcy ring in the New York courts. He is basing his renewed activities on an alleged written confession of Steinhardt. Mrs. David Steinhardt, left, had prevailed upon her husband to give himself up but some greater influence is believed to have caused him to take his life. Attorney H. L. Morris, right, of Philadelphia, attorney for Mrs. Steinhardt, told how the fugitive had planned to give himself up.

NORWEGIAN STEAMER GOES AGROUND IN SURF IN FOG

All hands on board had plenty to do when the Norwegian passenger and freight steamer Evanger went hard aground in the surf off Huntington Beach, Cal., in a dense fog. In the photo above salvage tugs and other rescue vessels are preparing to save her.

PREPARE NEW DIRIGIBLE FOR HOP

Utilizing an entirely new principle of propulsion, a new type of dirigible, the City of Glendale, is being made ready for its first transcontinental flight, Glendale, Cal., to New York, scheduled for June. Photo shows the ship in its shed at Glendale, with inset, Captain Thomas B. Slais and a model. The dirigible is steam driven and instead of propellers has a rotary blower which creates a vacuum in front into which the ship is drawn.

HOME TOWN WELCOMES JOHNSTON

When Henry S. Johnston, impeached governor of Oklahoma, returned to his home at Perry, he told the assembled throngs that he was "hijacked out of office" because he would not do the bidding of a "political gang." He has resumed his law practice and plans to seek the senatorial nomination next year. Above, he is surrounded by a part of the crowd.

Expensive Story

For his short story, "The Emancipation of Rodney," H. C. Witwer, short story writer, is asking $2,300,000 in Los Angeles courts of the film comedian, Harold Lloyd. He contends he submitted the manuscript to Lloyd, who later produced it as "The Freshman" without the formality of buying it. Lloyd denies the charges.

Pep for Talkies

The talkies have created increased demand for pretty girls with grace and pep. That explains how Blanche Fisher happens to be in Hollywood.

Vows Her Allegiance to Torch Slayer

Mrs. H. Colin Campbell, wife of the "torch slayer," shown at her Elizabeth, N. J., home with her daughters, Virginia and Dorothy, is beginning to weaken under the strain of the trouble which has come to her. At the Second Presbyterian Church recently, services were interrupted when a woman who collapsed and her two children screamed in terror, proved to be Mrs. Campbell and her children. At the same time the brave woman steadfastly denies the truth of the charges against her husband and firmly believes he will be freed before long.

Lloyd Hahn, who until eight months ago was regarded as one of the greatest milers in the world, has joined the back-to-nature movement, hung up his track shoes for good, he says, and is now spending his entire time working his 640-acre farm near Falls City, Neb. Hahn, who is 29, recently inherited $100,000 and is satisfied to rest on his laurels. He is shown here behind his plow.

Seventy Organizations To Compete At Erie Friday

Learn Information In Regard To Inter-School Musical Contest

CHARTER SPECIAL FOR LOCAL GROUP

Seventy musical organizations representing schools throughout western Pennsylvania are expected to compete in the annual northwestern Pennsylvania inter-school musical contest at Erie Friday, according to information received here.

In a letter sent Paul Charles, chairman of the 214 Musical groups by the Erie school, contacted with the contest, a brief outline of the contest arrangements was included.

According to the letter there will be three sets of judges because of the mammoth throng of students that is expected to perform. Classes B, C and D will compete in the girls' gymnasium at the Academy high building while classes A and E will meet in the auditorium of the school.

The letter said that all chorus contestants would occur in the arena, located at the intersection of 26th and French streets.

Automobiles will meet all contestants at the railroad stations to carry them to the Academy building, headquarters of the contest. Out-of-town contestants are asked not to take street cars for the trip to Academy for definite arrangements have been completed whereby free transportation will be provided for all. Included in the message was the fact that the non-contestants' admission fee would be 50 cents.

The northwestern inter-school contest is an annual affair, last year's having been held at Grove City. In that event New Castle entrants finished first in the class A section while Bessemer high school came out first in the class B section.

It is expected that New Castle will be the site of the 1930 musical contest but no definite decision to this effect will be made until the executive council meets later in the spring. Last year's understanding, however, agreed to by all, was that Erie would be the city for this spring's meet and New Castle the year following.

A special train over the Pennsylvania railroad will carry entrants from the Princeton, Shenango, Union, Mt. Jackson and New Castle senior high schools to the scene of the contest next Friday. The special will leave the city in the early morning.

Third U. P. School Elects New Officers

G. H. Colnot Is Made Chairman Of Cabinet; School Has Enrollment Of 1100

At a recent meeting of the board of education of the Third United Presbyterian Sabbath School new officers were elected for the coming year. K. John Fries,

New Castle, Pa.

Dear Mr. Fries:

We sincerely trust you are well pleased with your new Hart Schaffner & Marx Spring Suit.

Your suit is made from the finest all wool English fabric. We have been wondering if you noticed its chamois-like softness. In the spinning of wool yarn, water plays an all important part—and only in the hills of Scotland can be found water that gives this softening effect to wool. That is why the advertising of a fabric as being all wool really means nothing. There are many grades of wool.

You will pardon us if we caution you in the cleaning of your suit. Send it to a reliable cleaner. May we suggest Mayberry! Hart, Schaffner & Marx suits have always responded well to their methods.

Gratefully yours,

THE "Even-Heet" BURNER

A circle is the same at every point. That is why the Even-Heet Burner is built on the circle principle. The basis of its design is 14 circles. Each is the same size. Each has the same number of gas holes or ports. The result is a burner that delivers a uniform heat to every part of the cooking utensil. It eliminates gas waste, reduces gas bills and gives better cooking results.

Martin Battles Smith Wednesday Night

Featherweights To Arrive Here Today

Martin Stepped Into Limelight By Beating Datto, O'Dowd, And Shea While Smith's Punch Sent Bass, Finnegan, Anderson Down For Counts In Addition To Putting The 'Kavo' On Snell; Fought Blittman At Philadelphia; Six New Faces On Jolly Bowl Fistic Itinerary.

By ED FRITZ

Fight fans who went their way into Jolly Bowl Wednesday night should see a thrilling battle when the celebrated Andy Martin meets the bombing Steve Smith in a bout scheduled for 10 rounds. Martin recently defeated the terrifying Johnny Datto, the dancing Mike O'Dowd and thrilled Boston by outfighting Eddie Shea. Smith has floored Benny Bass, Eddie Anderson, Honeyboy Finnegan, stopped Doc Snell and gave Harry Blittman a spectacular setto.

For class, it looks as though the bout will be far above the ordinary battles which have been staged hereabouts. It ought to be better than the Davies-Wolgate fight because Martin and Smith can punch. Since Martin licked Shea he has become the talk of the country. Smith is matched to fight Kid Chocolate at Wilkes-Barre, May 7, this being mentioned merely to show the fans here that he has something in his repertoire that fans like and that something is "punch."

In Topnotch Flow

Neither Martin or Smith is a local boy but there are no featherweights around here who would have a ghost of a show with them. Fans do not care one whit about locality when and "sock" is missing and while many were eager to see the Davies-Wolgate battle, the embroiled Wednesday night should have more thrills as one or the other is apt to fling a glove that may result in a knockout. Anytime boxers can "sock" a knockout is always a probability.

For consistency Martin has proved that he is among those present. When he fought Johnny Datto he made Johnny miss like a sandlotter swinging at one of Davey Vance's offers. Johnny caught Martin on the chin in the first round and hurt Andy but he failed to land another hard punch. Martin returned to Pittsburgh and made a show of Mike O'Dowd and in Boston, before his hometown folk, he showed fans that he could beat Eddie Shea and anyone who can beat Shea must be good.

Smith is tougher than the ordinary run of featherweights. To have stood up in front of Benny Bass in a slugfest match shows he not only had a castiron jaw but a heart of oak and a "kick" like a mule. When the bout at Cleveland was over the toll showed he had won the popular decision and had two knockdowns to his credit. He sent the cowboy, Eddie Anderson, down twice, performed likewise against Honeyboy Finnegan, flattened the rugged Doc Snell then took on Harry Blittman. And what a fight it was.

Martin's Confidence

Martin took the fight at Boston Friday night not knowing the rules of Pennsylvania. However, he telephoned before the fight, "I'm going to win and will fight Wednesday." He did win. Smith was offered the same bout but understanding the rules turned the "go" down. These points, brought out to the public, show that the featherweights were considered good enough to head a $25,000 card at the Garden, Boston. Having signed to battle here the fans will get just as much fighting for popular Jolly Bowl prices.

Martin left Boston at four o'clock yesterday afternoon. He planned to arrive here this afternoon. Smith, accompanied by his brother, trainer, Joe, will also reach the city this afternoon. As Smith has been training 10 days and Martin has been fighting constantly, they'll need no finishing touches. They'll register at the Leslie and be there tonight to meet the fans. Billy Henderson manages Martin and Al Lippe, manager of Al Friedman will take care of Smith.

Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock they will weigh in under 130 pounds at the Jolly Bowl. A deputy of Commissioner Harry Boyle will be the official weigher. It is not yet known who will judge or referee the important class as a setback for either will mean much in a financial way as the loser will lose several "big money" battles. Various cities are bidding for the fight.

THE LOUDEST TALKER

Pirates Prepare To Open At Home

Everything In Readiness For Pittsburgh Pirates To Battle Cubs In Opener

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, April 23.—Another "opening day" is just around the corner for Pittsburgh baseball fans today. The Pirates will open the 1929 season on their home lot, Forbes Field, tomorrow against the Chicago Cubs, who boast the second "murderer's row" of organized baseball.

The Bucs arrived in the city this morning after an overnight trip from Cincinnati. Most of the players spent the morning finding their quarters for the season. Orders have been issued for the athletes to appear at the field at 1:30 p. m. for the final workout before the opening home game.

Burling Grimes, who has pitched the Pirates to the two victories they have acquired in five games played, will be on the mound. Grimes stopped the Cubs in the opening game of the season and bested the Cincinnati Reds.

With the exception of Shortstop Wright, the Pirate line-up will be about the same as last year. Earl Sheely, the long, lanky first baseman, will be the one really new face.

By DAVID J. WALSH Sports Editor International News Service NEW YORK, April 23.—William T. Tilden, the man whose name will resound through the halls of time until posterity itself is no more, may have played his last round of singles on behalf of his Uncle Samuel in the Davis Cup series, unless he can lift the tempo of his game well above that of recent months. What he may be able to do before July may get him a place on the 1929 singles team, what he has been doing, won't.

This was more than common gossip in tennis circles today. It almost amounted to an official utterance, although those responsible were careful to point out that the final and official selection of the team was in the hands of the Davis Cup committee and that the decision not only would not but could not be made until June. No one hesitated, however, in anticipating the committee's action in the event that Tilden fails to function before the final and challenge rounds in Europe this summer.

Tilden, it was explained, has two chances of qualifying in the singles play, one positive, the other negative. The former would mean that Tilden had shown some definite vestige of his former mastery in the tournaments at Wimbledon, Paris and in Holland. The negative chance is that those chances for the singles in the American zone play so indifferently as to leave the committee no alternative but to stake its all on the gamble that Tilden can reclaim in the emergency some of the brilliance he once knew.

Newton Defeats Phil Goldstein

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, April 23.—Ray Newton of Mansfield, O., today held a 10-round decision over Phil Goldstein and Referee Eddie Kennedy came in for considerable razzing. The two judges disagreed and Kennedy's vote gave the Ohio lad the nod.

Throughout, with the possible exception of the eighth round, the battle was uninteresting. Newton was supposed to be a slugger and Goldstein a boxer. Newton proved to be a counter puncher, and when Goldstein forced Newton to come to him it wasn't much of a fight.

The same matters two weeks ago, put up a real battle, with Goldstein on the verge of being knocked out. But last night instead of pushing the fight Goldstein played safe and with the exception of that eighth round, when he chose to punch, Newton did just about nothing and lots of it.

Revive Plans For Mush Ball League

Several More Teams Are Considering Entering League Projected Here

Plans for the formation of a mush ball league here are still alive, backers of the movement stated today, and a meeting will probably be called for the latter part of the week to discuss the proposition.

It is possible that a team will be entered in the league by employees of the local post office, while the Veterans of Foreign Wars are also discussing the plan of forming a team.

Lawrence County Loop To Start Play May 4th

Schedule Adopted Last Evening Calls For Opening Games Saturday May 4th

Thirty-Six Games On Schedule, Teams Enthusiastic Over 1929 Season

The Lawrence County League will pry off the 1929 lid on Saturday afternoon, May 4th, with two fast games. Announcement of the opening date was made last evening at a meeting held in the Sporting Goods Store on East Washington street and attended by all managers and officials.

There is an enthusiastic undercurrent this year in regard to Lawrence County League baseball, and the moguls are looking forward to a big season. There are seven teams in the fold as follows: Italian A. A., Slovak A. C., Bessemer, Hillsville, Wampum, Rick Motors and Pennsy Railroad.

A schedule was presented last night, and readily adopted by the managers. Games will be played Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

The opening games will be played Saturday, May 4th, as follows: Pennsy Railroad at Italian A. A. game played at Centennial Field; Slovak A. C. at Wampum. On Tuesday, May 7th, the Italian A. A. will play at Bessemer, and Hillsville will open with the Rick Motors at the Sampson street field.

Each team will play 36 games in the season. The season has been divided into two halves, each team playing 18 games in the first and second halves.

Youngstown Volley Ball Players To Meet New Castle

The Youngstown Y. M. C. A. volleyball team will come to New Castle Wednesday night to meet the championship New Castle Business Men's volleyball team at the "Y" court. The matches will start at 8 o'clock.

The locals only recently at Tarentum won the Central Western championship in a heated journey, and they hope to defeat the highly touted Youngstown team. The Youngstown men won the Northeastern Ohio title recently in a big tournament. The game here tomorrow night is in the nature of a title affair.

It isn't hard to love your fellow men, until you see one who has accomplished very little trying to be modest.

Harris And Russo Capture Doubles

Doubles Championship Of County To Be Staged April 30-May 2

S. S. Harris and Bill Russo knocked the doubles off in the Merry Widow at Solomon's as it entered the last week of play, with a score of 1328. The previous high was held by Eckstein and Russo with 1322 pins. McCormick took high with 655 in the singles.

A special match game is to be featured April 30 and May 2 between J. D. Thompson and C. H. Clark vs. S. S. Harris and Bill Russo. The match will be for the doubles title of the county. They will roll five games on each day. The matches will be played at night.

Sinkner To Manage Slovak A. C. Club

The Slovak A. C. team of the Lawrence County League, announced today that John Sinkner, well known New Castle baseball player, has been secured to manage the team this year. Sinkner with a lot of experience in the game figures to bring the Slovaks through winners in the flag chase. The team has been newly outfitted this year, according to word from Manager Morris Slovinsky. With Sinkner at the helm the Slovaks are enthusiastic over the possibilities of winning the pennant this season.

Bike Racer Scorns Jack's Ten Rules

(International News Service) ASBURY PARK, N. J., April 23.—Arthur A. Zimmerman, oldtime bike racing king, holder of 4 to 10 mile championships, high and low wheel, for 14 years, and who crossed the tape a winner nearly 2,000 times during his remarkable career as one of America's premier athletes, has made it known that he does not agree with all of Jack Dempsey's "ten rules" for training, recently published in a magazine.

That is on the point of eating meat. Dempsey warns against its use as a training diet, while the veteran cyclist says "cultivate a meat diet."

Indians eat plenty of meat. They are always in fine physical form. I have never seen a fat and flabby Indian.

Some of Zimmerman's suggestions to young athletes are: Take good care of yourself; cut out wild life; go to bed not later than 10 p. m., and get lots of sleep and rest. Avoid eating potatoes in any form.

Zimmerman maintains that the best going for an athlete is from 17 to 27 years of age. At 28 the vitality of a man starts to ebb, and he slows down, he said.

Cincinnati Wins Over Pittsburgh

Hill Cracks And Bartell Fails To Turn Rampage In Seventh

CINCINNATI, April 23.—When Carmen Hill's right arm went bad in the seventh frame Cincinnati emerged from their lethargy and defeated Pittsburgh 9 to 4. Up to Hill's downfall the Reds had amassed only five hits but after that point they bopped on the ball, made 10 hits in the last two innings and with the aid of six runs in one inning took the game like Grant took Richmond.

Ever Swanson was sent to left field to improve the Reds but his willow was as good as a spiked gun but Ethan Allen came through with four blows. George Kelly was one of a quartet of Cincinnatians who drove out a pair of hits and one of Kelly's blows drove in runs.

Red Lucas was in line form and held the Pirates to six scattered smashes, two of which were wasted. Up to the seventh Hill apparently had the situation in hand but Lucas started the rampage and before it was over Kremer was rushed to his room through the inning and Brickell batted for him. Dawson finished the game.

Critz cracked the ball through Bartell in the seventh with a possible double play in sight. This was the point that allowed the Reds to continue their rampage. Had the double been completed the story might have been different. The box score:

Time Limited, Many Bills To Be Sidetracked

Special Session Of Congress
Limited; Hoover's Wishes To Be Carried Out

FARM RELIEF IS BIGGEST MEASURE

WASHINGTON, April 23.—House of Representatives today opened its special session with the passage of a bill for relief of farmers. The bill, which is the first of a series of measures to be considered, is expected to be passed by the end of the session. The bill provides for the establishment of a Federal Farm Loan Board, which will be responsible for the distribution of federal funds to the farmers. The bill also provides for the establishment of a Federal Farm Loan Administration, which will be responsible for the management of the federal farm loan program. The bill is expected to be passed by the end of the session.

Roaming Round With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations
Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

Three months from now the "Charles G. Jordan Game Farm" near Harlansburg will be known over this part of Pennsylvania as a point of interest. By that time the farm will be under a full head of steam, with every department working.

Even now it is a place of intense interest, for while the building touches have not been put on the ring track, the arena is there, 1200 of them, and for the lover of wild bird life it is a treat.

Getting into the farm is something of a ride just yet, but the warm weather will dry up the soft spots and travel will wear down the bumps. Went out there Monday afternoon for a trip and ever since then I've been suggesting how pleasant pot pie would taste.

The gentleman has a plan. If you ever had a plan you'll recognize this one. It seems that he bought three pool tickets on the baseball scores yesterday. The idea of pool tickets is that the team combination showing the highest total of runs wins the money.

On each of the three he drew the New York Nationals, the other three teams being Washington, Cleveland, and Boston. The New York team didn't play, the Washington and Boston teams didn't play and Cleveland got shut out.

Lucky! Oh very!

To the county commissioners, thank. The hole in the viaduct is fixed, the cartway is smooth again, and the motorists are grateful.

You won't forget that tonight is the night of the concert in the Senior High school auditorium. Give the youngsters a break and help them to fill their war chest for the trip to Erie, Pa.

It seems as though we need bigger and better sewers in New Castle. From the ordinance just presented to council, one gathers that the populace are going to get a chance to say whether or not they will spend their well known hard earned dough for a more adequate sewer system here. All of which is as it should be. If the people are going to have to pay it, they should be allowed the privilege of saying whether or not they want to. I don't know whether or not more sewers are needed, but council has shown the right attitude in the matter.

Tax Refund List Is Made Public

Tax Refund To Waldorf-Astor Estate Placed At $4,635,- 530, Is Largest

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The first tax returns to be made public under the publicity order recently issued by President Hoover were announced by the treasury today.

Seven refunds in all were announced, involving $5,483,600, of which the largest amount, $4,635,530, went to the estate of William Waldorf Astor. Over-assessment was the cause, and the refund was made in compliance with a court order.

Fourteen laboratory tests indicate, among other things, that the patient has money.

Triple Linkers Visit Grove City

Erie Delegation Visits Grove City Lodge When Fine Meeting Is Held

GROVE CITY, April 23.—Seventy-five Odd Fellows of Erie came to Grove City Saturday evening. Dinner was served to them at eight o'clock by the Rebekah lodge of this place. Following dinner lodge was held. Members of the lodges of Sharon, Farrell, New Castle, Greenboro, Slippery Rock attended the lodge meeting. The initiatory degree was put on by the "Kid Team" composed of the members of the Wayside Inn and Grove City lodge members. Following this the Erie degree team put on the first degree. The first drill was put on that Grove City has ever seen. Sunday morning they spent at the Wayside Inn looking over the farm and home and returned to their homes in the afternoon. About 500 men attended this meeting altogether.
